MESSAGE*Prof. (Ms.) Anula Maurya*Erstwhile Principal (till 23rd August 2019)

अयं निजः परो वेति गणना लघु चेतसाम् ।
उदारचरितानां तु वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ।

यह मेरा है, यह उसका है; ऐसी सोच संकुचित चित्त वाले व्यक्तियों की होती है; इसके विपरीत उदारचरित वाले लोगों के लिए तो यह सम्पूर्ण धरती ही एक परिवार जैसी होती है ।

I had a very beautiful long association of more than ten years with Kalindi College and learnt a lot during my journey in this eminent institution. Good education is never an accident, it is always the result of high intentions, sincere efforts, intelligent direction and skillful execution. My warm greetings to all of you. On behalf of entire Kalindi College, I wish you all a convivial welcome to the 53rd Annual Day Celebrations of the college. We are heartily obliged by the presence of you all and are heartily thankful to all of you for sparing your valuable time for our College.

Today is a great event for the institution. This time it is extra special because despite the unprecedented challenges posed by Covid-19 outbreak, our faculty and staff members have converted the challenges into opportunities and we today, are celebrating our Annual day on this Virtual Platform. The Corona Virus Global Pandemic has forced the world to a standstill. The world has changed dramatically in the last seven months. This Pandemic has united the world to fight against a common, invisible enemy- The Virus! The predicament that the world is currently in, is in a lot of ways similar to wartime. We are all witnessing that Humanity is going through unprecedented time. Our country is waging a tough war against the much-feared Covid-19 pandemic. As a responsible member of the society we serve and operate in, our priority should be to utilize the financial resources prudently for all those who are in dire need of basic amenities and healthcare facilities. In this hour of need, our college shall also cooperate and conserve financial resources for this noble cause in order to contribute towards community outreach programmers and show solidarity with all those who are afflicted by the coronavirus pandemic. Hence, this time, I have decided against spending any money on printing of Annual Report, College Magazine and Academic Journal and this time the aforesaid documents will only be uploaded on our college website.

As Kalindi College completes 53 years of its glorious journey in pursuit of excellence, I offer my heartiest congratulations to the students, faculty members and staff members of this college who have made it possible for the college to earn an enviable position among the educational institutions of academic excellence in India. The college facilitates collaborative learning environment promoting free exchange of ideas across numerous academic and cultural platforms, clubs and societies. The students aided by such a vibrant learning environment are able to realize their true potential. The moral and ethical values envisioned by the college act as a guiding light for students throughout their life. In addition to it, the continued expansion of the college in terms of its infrastructure has allowed it to meet various technological and developmental demands of the fast-evolving global world. Addition of Girls' hostel, in the near future, will be another significant step forward in college's endeavor to ease the teaching-learning process. I wish to congratulate the college for offering various academic and co-curricular activities that tap into the potential of the students and keep them engaged in a constructive manner.

Education's primary and most sacred duty ought to be to create mindsets that feel free to explore, create and innovate, explore the possibilities of helping mankind and then creating solutions to make this world a more equal, kinder, tolerant and compassionate place. In the process of our commitment to education we take pride in the fact that we have nurtured worthy human beings who have chosen to be passionate winners in multifarious professions. I feel proud to announce that academic session 2019-2020 has been extremely successful and satisfying in terms of accolades and accomplishments in scholastic, co-scholastic and infrastructural development areas leading to a complete all-round development of the our and students. In this academic session, again our students and staff have shown commendable performance. Our students have excelled in academics as well as in co-curricular activities. My heartiest congratulations to the students, teaching and non-teaching staff and parents for another glorious year. He questioned, how patriarchy, which is based on a false consciousness could be so powerful? He asserted that law can play an important role in putting an end to the false idea of gender inequality. He also stressed upon the need to protect the 'legal life' of the citizens. He concluded his talk by saying that laws though significant, have many limitations, and therefore there is a need for discussion and deliberation on the role individuals play in upholding it.

Shri. Shailendra Sharma spoke on his experience and engagement with school education. He emphasized on the need to curb the practice of blaming the victim for violence and atrocities by quoting the recent incident of harassment of students of Gargi College, Delhi University. Mr. Sharma also shared his concern about prioritizing gender education in families and schools. He concluded his speech by saying that there is a need to introspect and work towards gender gap eradication both individually and collectively.

Prof Sunil K. Choudhary spoke on the connection between civil society, political society, and cultural society. He highlighted on the need to emphasize the cultural society and its education with respect to empowering women and reducing the gap of gender inequality. He reiterated on how gender studies and its focus need to move from political, social and economic towards cultural empowerment of gender because identity and culture is intrinsically linked. Prof. Sunil also pointed out the indispensable need to culturally educate society to respect the uniqueness and distinctness of a woman. There is an urgent need for women to be actively part of societal discourse and decision. He then concluded with the exhortation to consider individual as an agent of change, to see women and her empowerment as real catalysts for change and progress and that the role of common folk and women is vital for any form of change.

The keynote speaker, Prof. Ved Kumari, exhaustively deliberated on the role of law and its limitations in addressing the problem of gender discrimination. She began by asking, what is law? Does law, an instrument of change and empowerment also harass the people it intends to serve? Supreme Court believes that the entry of law into the family sphere is like allowing a bull in a china shop. Engendering Law intends to provide special provisions to address the issue of discrimination based on sex or gender. Critical questions that needed to be asked then comprise of

1. How the biological body of women has been used to justify women's subordination and confinement at home by law?
2. How does law construct a woman?
3. Does law promote patriarchal structures in society?
4. Effectiveness of special offences against women?

Prof Kumari discussed the relationship between biological bodies and laws; how female body has been perceived as inferior to male body and considered as passive. Home, child rearing and bearing rendered as natural function whereas whatever women do is inferior to that of men. She then moves on to analyze how law has constructed women. Women's body has either been constructed as ordinary or categorized as special human being. She talked about how the patriarchal structures in law were deliberated.

The Valedictory Session marking the conclusion of the one-day long seminar, "Engendering Laws and Crimes Against Women" began as per schedule. The Principal of Kalindi College, Dr. Anjula Bansal in her welcome speech introduced the guests of honour, the special guest and the chief guest of the session, who were respectively Mr. Prashant Bhushan, Ms. Indira Jaising, Mr. Jasmine Shah and Justice Kurian Joseph, Former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The first speaker of the session, Mr. Jasmine Shah of Dialogue and Development Commission, Govt. of NCT of Delhi, evocatively highlighted the problem of gender crisis which he said was not the only problem of the developing countries. He made a strong case of the constitutional power and the democratic exercise of voting that can lead to substantive changes in the governance. He elaborated several schemes initiated by the Delhi Government that were instrumental in addressing the problem of women safety in Delhi. He extensively talked about various schemes that brought vital changes in this direction, such as: One, the installation of CCTV cameras of which 3 lacs were already installed. He indicated how this move has helped as an effective tool to catch the culprits and deterrence of criminal activities. Asserting how vigilance is an important tool to curb the menace of crimes he impressed upon the fact that how local people must come forward and demand of their local governing bodies to implement such tools. Citizen's active participation is a key factor here, he said.

Secondly, eradicating dark spots in the city by installing more street lights. He elaborated how this move has come out of an understanding of the need for such a measure through 'will, commitment, and money'. Collaboration with safety police and the launch of the Chief Minister's street-light yojana proved essential for this move along with citizen's contribution through their local MLA's.

The third initiative was the bus marshal schemes to ensure women's safety on DTC buses. He said that three thousand bus marshals are already recruited.

Fourthly he talked about the Mohalla Marshals or community policing that would ensure regular policing on the streets of Delhi. He also emphasized the importance of teaching gender equality to boys who study in schools and colleges and how a discussion of topics such as consent in various relationships between men and women shall be fruitful in this direction.

Lastly, indicating a shortage of staff in the Delhi Police he also pointed out the limitations within the functioning of the government.

Eminent Senior Advocate of the Supreme Court, Indira Jaising, focused on the importance of speaking up against crimes and violations. She too argued for local citizen's political participation and how their power comes from their right to vote. She emphasized another important factor of the citizen's power that comes from a feeling of compassion towards fellow human beings and how as citizens it is our civil duty to raise issues in the public domain. By giving her own example as someone who paid a price for speaking against sexual harassment at the workplace Ms. Jaising alerted the audience to be aware of the consequences when dissenting against high and mighty. She insisted on the fact that how harsh consequences can be overcome if people build solidarity amongst themselves which can take the shape of a national movement. While pointing out the functioning of the legal system she said that Law cannot take someone's life and further implying how demand for more criminal laws will not solve the problem of crimes against women. And in fact, reiterated how a more notional change is required to change the mindset of people in the society. She effectively spoke about how the sphere of family and intimate relationship can help bring this change by engaging in a discussion of the societal and cultural problems.

At the same time, primacy must be given to the Constitution of India, she observed. Quoting the recent legal proceedings of the Sabrimala Temple case Ms. Jaising presented her alarming reaction against the arguments of stakeholders who have opposed the intervention of the Supreme Court and the Constitution in religious denominations. By insisting on the fact that the constitution of India must have primacy in making decisions and as a result she argued that the primacy of the Parliament must be maintained through the duties of MPs in ensuring that the law is constitutional. Advocating for a more solidarity-based revolution she emphasized the need for a compassionate outlook towards victims and in fact, pointed out how people and young students especially must come forward and protest against laws that are discriminatory.

While he began with confessing his lack of expertise in the subject-matter of gender, Mr. Prashant Bhushan said the latter nevertheless interests him. Despite favourable laws like the POSCO Act, crimes against women persist, He said, suggesting the limits of legal intervention in this particular area for it has various other factors informing the culture of gender-based crime and injustice; namely the social, infrastructural and cultural factors. With respect to culture, he said further, the onus lies on the leadership to intervene to bring about favourable reforms. He cited the instance of the journalist Swati Chaturvedi whose book I am Troll investigates the state-sponsored IT-cells that propagate rape threats and death threats to the women activists on social media reiterating the larger rape culture that haunts the civic body which in turn bears witness to the utter failure of the leadership in the country. He went on to speak of the infrastructural influences that ought to look into matters of gender-crimes and he focused on the police as the primary law enforcement machinery. While the function proper of the police is to ensure protection of the rights and dignity of its civilians, we under present government see the latter being instrumental in instigating violence on the one hand in places like UP and refusing to intervene where they ought to in places like JNU where in the presence of police men, masked men and women entered the campus beating up the students. The machinery that is supposed to protect women, is committing those crimes suggesting how this machinery has been extremely politicized; that of the centre in the case of Delhi Police and that the state in the case of UP Police, whereby they fail as an institution to do what they are supposed to do. In this context, he invoked police-reforms which were already directed by the Supreme Court in 2016 about which the SC is silent now. These reforms including the implementation Independent Police Complaint Authority would mean the use of the police force to meet political ends are prevented. Lastly, he dealt with the judiciary and the law where he spoke of the functions of judiciary to administer justice and to protect the rights of citizens. Just like the law enforcement machinery has been subjected to political motives, so is the judicial system where it has now become an instrument of the ruling party leaving us with a corrupt justice system that in turn leads to the increase in crimes. Reiterating the argument he made in the beginning, he said the laws are not the problem but the debased culture which is being promoted by the ruling party and the media that spreads misinformation promoting crime, which consequently determine the kind of law and judiciary that we have, hence these factors hitherto discussed, he argued, are interconnected, one affecting the other which should then urge us all to a movement demanding both judicial and police reforms to keep politicization of these infrastructures in check to ensure a crime free culture and environment.

Justice Kurian Joseph, former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, who was the Chief Guest at the session began his lecture referring to Mr. Jasmine Shah's talk where latter mentioned the state of the police department that now has 52000 vacancies. Mr. Joseph urged all the students and the faculty present there to file a public interest litigation against this asking for these vacancies to be filled that could result in a stronger and effective police force in the capital which has become over the years the most unsafe city for women especially. He then spoke of the aspect of dignity which is something that the Constitution assures its citizens in its preamble that evokes fraternity. Women he said, as per the Constitution are equally entitled to dignity, not as mothers, sisters and daughter but more importantly and primarily as individuals. The culture we live does not allow in such a recognition of women which in fact goes against the Constitution itself. Referring again to the previous speakers, he also spoke of the need for solidarities in order to cultivate a healthier culture that takes in to account the individuality of its women. Culture he said cannot be reformed without such solidarities being forged within the civic body and therefore the “debased” culture that we witness today which promotes gender-crimes suggest more than anything else the failure of such solidarities. Further he mentioned the larger popular culture that in a more fundamental sense commits violence upon the dignity of women by objectifying them. The prevalence and persistence of this particular aspect contribute to the culturally sanctioned delegitimizing of women’s dignity and individuality. Finally referring the current political climate, he said, as common citizens, in the context of failed and corrupt justice systems and infrastructure, where the keepers have become now the poachers, the only hope to be had is in generating civic solidarities.

The National Seminar saw participation of more than 200 students from both University of Delhi and outside. About 25 research papers were presented on various themes of the Seminar in parallel technical sessions. Each technical session was chaired and had expert resource persons recommended by National Commission for Women.

6. National Seminar organized Women’s Development Cell, Kalindi College, University of Delhi on “Legal Awareness Programme”

Convener: Dr. Anita Tagore

The Women’s Development Cell, Kalindi College, the University of Delhi with the support of the National Commission for Women (NCW) organized a one-day National Seminar on “Legal Awareness Programme” on March 4 2020. The inaugural session was graced by Guest of Honour and Keynote Speaker Prof. Pralay Kanungo, DAAD Guest Professor, University of Heidelberg, Germany, Chief Guest Ms. Bandana Kumari, Honorable member of Legislative Assembly, Government of NCT Delhi along with Special Guest Ms. Seema Gupta, Chairperson, Delhi Social Welfare Board, Government of NCT of Delhi.

The inaugural function began with the inaugural address by Dr. Anita Tagore, Convener, Women’s Development Cell and “Legal Awareness Programme”. Dr. Tagore apprised the audience of the major themes of the seminar such as violence against women and laws which pertain to rape, sexual assault, and domestic violence. Dr. Tagore further spoke of the importance to recognize the preventive and punitive measures to address this issue, and highlighted that the main aim of this program is to promote consciousness about the rule of law, and public intervention to facilitate delivery in the justice system.

The inaugural function proceeded with the welcome note by Dr. Anjula Bansal, Principal, Kalindi College. Dr. Anjula Bansal welcomed the gathering and congratulated the Convener Dr. Anita Tagore for organizing a successful event. Dr. Bansal thanked the National Commission of Women for collaborating with the Women’s Development Cell, Kalindi College, in organizing the one-day seminar. She highlighted the need of the hour to address these issues of crime and violence against women and hoped that the seminar shall be able to raise awareness on such a sensitive issue. Many prominent honorable guests and experts from across disciplines addressed the gathering with their valuable perspective on the issue pertinent to the seminar. Ms. Bandana Kumari addressed the gathering ardently by bringing her own experience of working on the field and in policymaking that concerns the life of women in Delhi. She spoke of various social and cultural factors that prohibit women from being assertive and shared her own experience of dealing with various familial issues as well as remaining socially active in her political role. In his Keynote address, Prof. Paraly Kanungo highlighted the main concerns of the seminar from a historical perspective. He extensively spoke about the historical and social system of patriarchy that has always privileged men over women. The address by the Special Guest, Ms. Seema Gupta, emphatically argued for a more active engagement of common citizens and especially women to come out and expose the nature of crimes committed by men. She maintained that how the Delhi government has been instrumental in ensuring women’s safety by implanting various measures and policies to prevent crimes and promote equality between men and women.

Technical sessions on Laws related to sexual Assault, Rape and Domestic Violence was organized. In the first technical session, Prof. Shaveta Gagneja and ACP Sunita Sharma, SPUWAC spoke in great details about laws related to sexual assault. The Self Defense training team of SPUWAC also demonstrated simple techniques of self-defense for the students to follow. The Second Technical Session discussed the Laws related to Rape and Domestic Violence. Dr. Vageshwari Deswal and Dr. Anita Tagore spoke on the different provisions of the laws that address the question of rape and Domestic Violence. Both the sessions were attended by large number of students, teachers and staff.

The Valedictory session also saw an august gathering of persons of law making and law enforcement agencies to engage in a meaningful discussion with students on various issues of gender justice. The first speaker of the Valedictory session was Ms. Monika Bhardwaj, Deputy Commissioner of Police, Delhi Police. She remarked that she would like to remove the category of women from vulnerable sections of society and for that to happen we should all be aware of the basics of law. She spoke about the various IPC sections that deal with women and law. She encouraged women to be courageous so that they can take responsibility for themselves and report the crime. She concluded her speech by advising everyone to download Delhi Police's Himmat Plus app, a novel venture by the police system for ensuring safety of women.

The second speaker of the session was Ms. Sarika Chaudhary, Hon'ble Member, Delhi Commission for Women. She discussed the importance of having women's development committees in institutes. She explained how there is a need to create spaces of free speech for women by coupling it with various real-life examples. The basic requirement of the hour is to ensure that equality be taught and practiced at home, only then could it become a reality in society. She commented on the fact that the country's system was such that it becomes extremely difficult for women to pursue a case in court and that it was high time that the police stop sending cases of severe physical abuse to Crime against Women cells, instead section 307 and 308 of IPC could be used in such scenarios. NCW has been active in taking rights-based awareness to local levels which has led to an increase in reporting of crimes.

The third and final speaker of the day was Shri Sanjeev Jha, Hon'ble Member of the Legislative Assembly, Govt of NCT of Delhi. He said that while it was essential to be aware of laws, laws by themselves were not a deterrent to crime. The problem exists with the mindset of people. In a patriarchal society, the dominating gender expresses its domination with repression of the other. This mentality needs to be addressed, which can be done only by raising one's voice. The government, he said, was doing its part by trying to create a sense of security by putting streetlights and cameras on roads, protection officers in buses, but the first call for change has to emanate from the grassroot voices. In conclusion he thanked the organizers and the audience for creating space for such an essential dialogue.

The paper titled “Young Emotions: stepping into Adulthood” is an outcome of a College funded research project undertaken and co-written by Anatara Dutt and Vanshika Pandey, IInd year students of the Department of English, Kalindi College. The paper examines the lack of representation of teenage issues in Indian visual media platforms, highlighting the need to create more engaging and relatable content. This need has been expressed in a web-based survey conducted for Indian adolescents. This project is supervised by Ms. Shipra Gupta, Ms. Tanu Sharma, and Mr. Sushrut Bhatia, faculty members, Department of English, Kalindi College. Shipra Gupta in her research paper titled “Elizabeth Inchbald’s ‘A Simple Story: Unravelling the Deceptively Simple’”, highlights the revolutionary aspects of the novel by Elizabeth Inchbald who marks the transgressive attempts of women writers like her in the eighteenth century by vociferously addressing debates around education, female autonomy and forbidden sexual desires.

Ms. Anita’s paper, ‘Pradhan Mantri Mudra Yojana: An Analysis.’ looks at how Micro, Small and Medium enterprises play an important role in growth and development of any economy. ### अकादमिक जर्नल के लिए हिन्दी माध्यम में लिखे हुए लेखों का विवरण

इस वर्ष सत्र 2019-2020 के अकादमिक जर्नल के लिए हिन्दी माध्यम से कुल 6 लेख हैं जिनमें से एक हिन्दी विभाग का शोध परियोजना कार्य है

इतिहास विभाग की डॉ रिनी और डॉ कृष्णा का लेख " पूर्व मध्यकालीन भारत का विशिष्ट करण " पूर्व मध्यकाल के सभी पक्षों का तथ्यों एवं आंकड़ों के आधार पर गहन विश्लेषण करता है कि पूर्व मध्यकाल स्थानीयकरण की भावना से प्रभावित रहा है। क्षेत्रीयवाद जातियों एवं उपजातियों में बटे समाज की संकटपूर्ण आर्थिक दशा एवं आपसी प्रतिस्पर्धा का विदेशी शक्तियों ने लाभ उठाया।

इतिहास विभाग की ही डॉ कृष्णा का लेख " मीडिया और लोकतंत्र " लोकतंत्र में मीडिया की भूमिका का विस्तार से विवेचन एवं विश्लेषण करता है। जनसंचार माध्यम अथवा उनकी शक्ति के दुरुपयोग अन्तर्राष्ट्रीय सम्बन्धों में खतरों से भी जहाँ एक ओर आगाह करता है, वहीं दूसरी ओर उत्तरदायी संचार माध्यमों के प्रति पारस्परिक समझ भी पैदा करता है।

हिन्दी विभाग की डॉ ममता चौरसिया का " समकालीन हिन्दी कविता और भूमण्डलीकरण की चुनौतियाँ " नामक लेख यह बताता है कि आज का दौर भूमण्डलीकरण का है , जहाँ विचार हो या वस्तु हो , हर किसी को वैश्विक स्तर पर ले जाने की होड़ मची है। लेकिन इस रेस में कहीं न कहीं हमारे सामाजिक , सांस्कृतिक और मानवीय मूल्य धराशायी हो रहे हैं , जिनका परिणाम पूरा मानव भुगत रहा है।

हिन्दी विभाग की डॉ रक्षा गीता का लेख " स्त्री विमर्श के सन्दर्भ और नारी-मुक्ति के प्रश्न " अत्यन्त ज्ञानवर्धक और विषय की गम्भीरता से जुड़ा हुआ है। इसमें स्त्री विमर्श और स्त्री मुक्ति- दोनों को एक दूसरे का पूरक बताया गया है। इसमें यह समझाने का प्रयास किया गया है कि विमर्श और उससे जुड़े साहित्य को साहित्य के विस्तृत फलक से अलग करके उसे एक खास घेरे में सीमित करके नहीं देखना चाहिए।

हिन्दी विभाग की डॉ विभा ठाकुर का "मध्यकालीन भारतीय साहित्य में स्त्री रचनाकारों के योगदान का अध्ययन" नामक शोध परियोजना कार्य भक्तिकाल की प्रमुख स्त्री विशेषतः तमिल, तेलुगु कन्नड, मराठी, हिन्दी, कश्मीरी भाषा की रचनाओं के आधार पर उनके योगदान को रेखांकित करने का महत्वपूर्ण एवं सराहनीय प्रयास है।

संस्कृत विभाग के डॉ शिव कुमार ने अपने लेख "वेदों में मानवीय जीवन मूल्यपरक प्रासंगिकता" में ऋग्वेद, यजुर्वेद और सामवेद के उद्धारणों द्वारा यह प्रस्तुत किया है कि वेद में वैदिक देवता समस्त जगत् की प्राकृतिक व्यवस्था और मानवीय जीवन मूल्य व्यवस्था के पोषक एवं संरक्षक हैं। वे

परस्पर अविरोधभाव से ऋत और सत्य का पालन करते हुए अपना-अपना कार्य करते हैं। इसके अतिरिक्त वेदों में मानव हित की प्रार्थना बहवचन में की गई है। इसलिए वेद के विचार किसी देश और काल तक सीमित न होकर आज भी सम्पूर्ण विश्व के लिए प्रासंगिक हैं।

ENACTUS KALINDI

Student Coordinator: Sonal Sawhney, B. Com (P), II year;

Teesta Bose, B.A (Hons.) Economics, II year

Enactus Kalindi, operative since 2017, aims at eradicating various social issues which weakens the foundation of our country. Also, it aims at empowering each and every community of our country. Enactus Kalindi in association with Social responsibility Cell of our college commenced its first project named as REHMAT – dealing with the manual scavenging community, rehabilitating them to another profession by imparting different kind of skills to them. Project Rehmat has a mission to create a nation where a person does not die for a living. Manual scavengers across the nation remove human and animal excreta from the streets and dry latrine, cleaning septic tanks, sewers and gutters. This inhuman occupation has been banned by the constitution for the past 13 years but it is still being practiced on a large scale. Earlier, by doing an illegal and dehumanizing act, they have faced several dignity issues and because of which they hesitate to talk to other people. This was the biggest challenge for us to talk to them and convince them to unfollow this practice and adopt a new profession. For this we provide them KIT JEEVAN which includes basic necessities required for entering into a sewer on a 3 months basis and during this period they also get an opportunity to learn a new skill and be rehabilitated to a different profession such as employing those manual scavengers in factories as skilled labor. We have been able to rehabilitate 34 manual scavengers. We have targeted the women of scavenging community by converting them to self-sustained entrepreneurs by engaging them into the business of soap making. We have been able to create over 20 women entrepreneurs over the years from that community.

In 2019, Social Responsibility Cell came up with a new project named WERAN. It aims at the upliftment of farming community by educating them about the new and organic farming practices which they weren't aware about. Also, we aim at increasing their incomes by making them aware about feasible farming practices and alert them about the vicious cycle of intermediaries or middlemen.

We have trained the farmers into segregating the entire produce into three categories, Category A, Category B and Category C. We then use the Category C produce that usually goes waste due to its unappealing look, to produce pickles by the women of the urban poor areas. This converts them into self-sustained entrepreneurs. The Category C is the rotten produce which is used by trained farmers in making organic manure, saving costs of production.

Future Prospects

In Rehmat, we are looking forward to collaboration with Project 'Asbah' by Enactus SRCC. It is an initiative aimed at providing clean and affordable drinking water to rural households and slums by setting up filtration plants. Since water and sanitation go hand in hand, we would be working with them to provide the soap made by our target community.

In Weran, we aim at connecting more prospective women and converting them into self-sustained entrepreneurs. We will also look into expanding our market for the jams and pickles produced.

CDF KALINDI

And this year we have successfully started two new pathshalas one in Baljeet Nagar and one behind Kalindi College.

After one year of successful operation, the team has now initiated an advance module along with the basic syllabus. A Swachh Bharat Abhiyan was recently conducted in the Inderpuri center which was utterly successful. The kids were so enthusiastic and passionate, they cleaned the nearby roads in presence of our volunteers and a message of 'Clean India, Green India' was promoted amongst them.

- Smart teaching

We have started teaching children with laptops so that they can learn better by seeing videos. A variety of science experiments like making a water filter, hot air burning experiment have been conducted in the centers in the past month and the team analyzed that children learn better when they are able to verify the results. Children have been taught tough topics such as parts of a leaf and flower along with leaf painting. They were also made to pronounce it so that they could add new words to their vocabulary. The Social Responsibility Cell has also started to take climate issues into account in the advance curriculum. Phenomena such as global warming and climate change have been introduced, posters to reduce global warming were drawn and tips on how to save planet Earth were delivered by the volunteers. Another interesting topic 'Reduce, Reuse and Recycle' was taught to the kids by making useful things out of waste material. The session helped to develop the creativity skills of children and they came up with brilliant ideas to reuse old things.

- Steps beyond regular teaching

A workshop regarding self- defense was taken in the Inderpuri center which also cover topics of child sexual abuse and good touch bad touch.

We have also conducted kilkari donation drive in our college campus and we were very overwhelmed to see the response. The items that were collected during the donation drive was distributed in kilkari pathshala on children's day. We also celebrated children's day in our pathshalas playing various games, doing dance, singing and mimicry.

We also celebrated festival of Diwali telling children the importance of Diwali and why it is celebrated. We also celebrated republic day in our pathshalas and before the celebration volunteers taught children dance, poems, songs to perform on Republic Day which eventually turned out to be a great celebration.

Regular yoga classes are also conducted in the pathshalas and a new theme is going to start in all the pathshalas that is "Love yourself daily" in which every week an activity will be conducted in the pathsala that indicates love.

- Impact created by Project Kilkari

Thus, after much determination and hardwork, Kilkari pathshalas with the help of around 25 volunteers has successfully been able to make a positive impact on the lives of more than 120 unattended children living on the streets, deprived of even their basic right-'Education' and the SRC volunteers have been able to achieve the desired result which was to improve the basics of every child in the Centre. Schedule caste and scheduled tribes (SC/ST) cell of Kalindi college was established in September 2015 by the then Vice Chancellor of Delhi University Professor Dinesh Singh and Director of South Campus, Delhi University Dr. Umesh Rai. The purpose of the cell was to restore all the affairs and grievances related to the SC /ST student and faculty. This was the major achievement of Kalindi college to start a new centre with the very big purpose because the schedule students who belong to SC/ST category have lack of confidence due to the small number of people from this community in the mainstream and due to the lack of resources and economic condition. The principal Dr. Anula Maurya thought that they can come forward if we give proper direction, motivation and sources to them and this can be possible only through proper education awareness. Kalindi College always take special Governmental and non-governmental measures and interest in the facilitating financial support to students from these communities from time to time. They are also encouraged to take participation in career related programs.

Pravah is the trilingual student magazine published by the college and released on Annual Day. Published in English, Hindi and Sanskrit, it provides students a medium of expression and showcases their preoccupations, thoughts and feelings, both through writing and their art work. Furthermore, the magazine also gives space to the photographs of the events and activities that the college organises throughout the year.

The theme of Pravah this year is "Dialogue/ Samvaad". We are today in the midst of a time of great conflict. Globally there is an increasing tendency of seeing all opinions and beliefs in black and white, right and wrong, us and them. It appears as if we are unable to appreciate the many shades of grey that lie between these extreme positions of black and white.

We must realize the irreparable harm that this is doing at the social and individual levels, and bring a soothing balm into our daily interactions through dialogue or samvaad, a conversation with a genuine sense of open-hearted curiosity about those who hold divergent views. As our youth look to the future, they see that the need of the hour is this sense of dialogue with the purported other. This is the only way to seek refuge from divisive conflict and its consequences of brutal violence, obsessive xenophobia and inevitable ghettoization.

No publication is the work of an individual. We are grateful to our Officiating Principal, Dr. Anjula Bansal for her support. We thank all the colleagues and students who have contributed to this edition. We are deeply appreciative of the hard work put in by the entire team of student editors: Tushita Sinha from III BA(H) English and Antara Dutt from II BA(H) English (English Section), Kavita Saini and Neha Raikwar, both from III BA(H) Hindi (Hindi Section), and Deepika Bidlan, III BA(H) Sanskrit, and Nikita Sanskrit and Shri Mishra, both from II BA(H) Sanskrit (Sanskrit Section).

RAQS, the Dramatic Society of Kalindi College, been operative since 2011, has had actively performed in several public and competitive domains. The annual production for the year 2020-21, "BULLYWOOD" featured a cosmopolitan woman in Bollywood, belonging to creamy class of Indian society who smokes while speaking her mind. She wears a certain culture depicting her independence with a hint of misandry here and there, writing the blueprint of feminism which has nothing to do with "social, political and economic equality of all the sexes". Our play ascends to call out Bollywood on various such alteration done by it: be it homoerotic desires, being called weak under hyper masculinity or meaning of sensuality and sexuality becoming one selling film and many such stereotypical displays that surpass all sense of reasons and social responsibility of education which Bollywood refuses to takes boiling down to one answer, may be audience of Indian geography do not want to be educated under massive control of patriarchy.

The street play society is an undivided embodiment of the students from various academic backgrounds and undergraduate courses, right from their first year, coming together as "RAQS" to bring about general awareness and change in the society, as they perform with bold voices and even bolder intents- with lively musicals and foot thumping songs, namely "Tapti dhoop mein nikale hum" and "Tu shor macha".

RAQS has managed to entitle itself to several accolades and critical appreciation this year with its performances across Delhi University Theatre Circuit and beyond. Raqs performed in various other college fests including Saheed Sukhdev College of business studies (Manthan'20), Udaan Utsav'20 (annual street play festival of Jawaharlal Nehru University), and performed in the main fest of Kamla Nehru College (DU), performed at fest of PGDAV College ( SHOR'20), Acharya Narendra Dev College, Lady Irwin college, Gargi College, Sri Ram College Of Commerce, IHE College, DDUC, Satyawati College, IHE College, SGND Khalsa College and Kalindi College, etc. Apart from performing at various competitive levels, RAQS gave public performances in National School of Drama (NSD), Nehru Place (on the occasion of Manthan), at Nehru place metro station (for the prelims of Daulat Ram College). The society, with its resources and the efforts of its teacher conveners, successfully hosted its annual street play festival FITOOR 2020 with much fanfare and enthusiasm in February 2020. The fest witnessed participation of 10 teams from educational institutes all over Delhi.

The Thea Care Workshop

Over eighty students along with the English department staff stepped away from their usual work and classes on August 28, 2019 to participate in the Workshop on Self Care: Hormonal Health and Nutrition presented by Thea Care. The workshop was held in Kalindi College organized by the Literary Society, Mitrakshar. We saw our Keynote speakers Pallavi and Swarnima educating young women on the importance of hormonal health. The audience present was beyond inquisitive and it was truly remarkable to see taboo subjects about the female body and health being talked about openly.

Thea Care is a platform that aims to dismantle the culture of silence around women's health and bodies by creating awareness, and fostering healthy conversations. Through a robust framework of well-researched content, an engaging community, comprehensive sex education, and a range of ingenious products and services, Thea Care seeks to bring about holistic solutions to women's health and body care problems.

On 28th we had the pleasure of meeting Ms Pallavi and Ms Swarnima, two deeply dedicated women working tirelessly to remove the taboo surrounding the female health issues. They addressed an extensive group of young college girls to give them a platform to talk openly about their bodies and health issues. The workshop was a detailed and interactive discussion regarding various female health issues from PTSD (Postpartum post-traumatic disorder) to conditions women and young girls might experience before or during menstruation and how to deal with them. They not only addressed the less talked about female health issues but also countered many myths surrounding such conditions or diseases and also educated the audience on various methods they could adopt to deal with such issues. However they not only talked about the myths that were wrong but also educated their audience about some correct beliefs that are prevalent regarding various female healthcare issues and why it is so; for example why it's advised to consume food products rich in antioxidants which as it turns out can be very effective if you're trying to reduce the risk of heart diseases. The speakers not only engaged the audience with open discussions but also held anonymous surveys to better their research and also make the addressees more comfortable and familiar with their own body and its problems. They made sure that every query was answered even if some people might feel awkward about voicing such questions in front of an audience for which they made sure that everybody felt welcome enough to talk to them separately after the seminar or ask questions anonymously by putting queries in a box they had set aside for this purpose. They also introduced an interactive/talking uterus toy that could help women understand the working of their body better and get more aware of their health and body.

The workshop was an interactive and informative session that helped many who attended, understand the importance of putting one's health and body as a priority and how to correctly deal with various health issues that they might face. Thea Care is a body-positive, sex-positive platform seeking to counter preoccupied with 'slimming' and 'fairness', and encouraging women to love and care for their bodies and workshops as this goes a long way to not only educate young females to nurture their bodies but also in imbibing an important message that their physical and mental health is as important as any other aspect of their life no matter how much of a taboo the society might make of it.

Chrysalis 2019

On 27th September 2019 Kalindi College's English Literary Society MITRAKSHAR organized its annual fest Chrysalis. A team of 21 office bearers along with several volunteers and the department teachers worked through weeks to make Chrysalis 2019 happen. Their dark and satirical theme "Dystopia" worked its wonders in opening various avenues to explore for the participants which was evident from the great number of students that participated from across colleges. The fest was inaugurated by a skit prepared by the students of English department on the topic of environmental dystopia.

Several thought provoking and interesting events from mobile photography to creative writing and even nukkad natak with delightful prizes took place. The events involved were Mobile Photography, Slam Poetry, Creative Writing, Comic Strip Making, Nukkad Natak and Face Painting. There were two judges for each of the six events from the department itself and cash prizes were given to the first and second position winners. All the events saw great number of participants from various colleges arresting poetry recitals and amazing stories and art.

A huge crowd of students not just as participants but as an audience assembled as well and their main attraction being the Nukkad Natak teams that only at length worked to gather a crowd for their performances but also made sure that they sent no one unsatisfied. It was an exhilarating event and a treat to the eyes to see students gather in such huge numbers to watch the street actors perform. What made the process all the livelier was their very eager participation in cheering the performing teams. The plays were not the only attractions at the fest. Beautifully painted faces strutting around the campus were also a sight to see. The models of the face painting competition succeed in making every head turn as they walked by. Last but not the least was the amazing food that was served. From the various types of samosas to the ever popular momos, all the food stalls were packed with students.

The organizers did a great job from the organizing the fest to making sure that everything went smoothly and the participants received all they needed. They could be seen throughout the fest helping around the participants, doing their registrations and prepping up rooms for different events and trying to make sure that everything worked perfectly.

The fest in all turned out to be a huge success owing to the hard work of the Literary Society students and teachers. Jam packed with fun plays, eye-catching decorations and striking events it would definitely be an event to attend again and see what new themes and ideas they come up with to boggle our minds.

Engagement with Poetry Session

A poetry event was organized by the English literary society, Mitrakshar, of Kalindi college on 9th January 2020. The event was attended by around 50 students from the English department. Poetry has always been an interesting field of literature. The beauty of words that express the feelings of the heart has for a long time attracted many minds and souls. This event not only enlightened the students about poetry and its latest development as slam poetry but also gave many aspiring writers an opportunity to ignite their creative minds and attempt to write a poem as well.

The event began with a brief introduction to the styles of poetry. It was followed by showcasing an energetic slam poetry performance by Marshall Davis on the technology as a social evil and Maia Mayor's emotionally provoking slam poetry on the idea of perfection. Students actively participated in a discussion about the performances and exchanged thoughtful reviews on them, indicating how much one could relate to these subjects. Even the professors showed a keen interest and indulged in an informative discussion with the students. The hyping enthusiasm of the performances shown invoked the creative thinking of the students present and resulted in many students reciting their written pieces on different topics. Even the teachers didn't step back to recite their written pieces. The two-hour seminar concluded successfully as it accomplished its objective of bringing young creative minds together at work.

One Day Student Seminar

On 3rd March the English Literary Society of Kalindi College, Mitrakshar organized a Student Seminar on the topic: Climate Emergency: A literary outlook. It saw a mass of 70 students attending the seminar along with some prominent key note speakers like Me. M.R. Vishwaprasad, Shama Jan and Mr. Sushrut.

Literature and arts have always been engaged with nature and human interactions and roles within its sphere. However, it is only in recent years that an academic approach has been considered too seriously study and understand the question of nature and environment in our lives and its importance and not just in its stereotypical portrayal but it's meaning in our lives. Considering the recent cataclysmic change in the interaction between human and nature where we are no longer the ones reacting but rather having nature respond to our actions it is even more important to consider the questions. Mitrakshar through its seminar took a step in this direction to make students educate and question our involvement with environment. They aimed at opening a discussion that would help all those present and involved in becoming more aware and help future discussions to be more productive. Mr. Vishwaprasad's speech and paper gave the students a new outlook on Anthropocene and opened discussions that would not cease with end of the seminar. Many more such thought-provoking papers were presented in the seminar by students as well. Student teams from all over Delhi University participated in the seminar to present their views on the topics through their papers.

The event was interactive and it was not just speeches meant to be heard but discussions where the audience was not only asked to participate and comment but also present their own view points. It gave a platform to the young budding minds of the field to tackle and research a very relevant and present scenario and the lively debates only proved how much the students were involved with it. The seminar was a success with the team from IP College for Women and a participant from Kalindi College emerging as winners for presenting the best part on the topic.

And even though the seminar has ended, the discussion has not and the event definitely did help the students to get a better understanding of our present-day relations with nature and the actions we need to take to counter the growing problem.

She posed questions to those historians who used to downplay the religious reason only due to maintain harmony in society. She said that prime job of any Historian is to represent the real picture instead of sacrilege. In final remarks she said that in the context of the new developments in historiography, every mode of historical inquiry needs to be reviewed and updated. प्रो. निरंजन ने जोर देकर कह कि हमें अंगद की तरह पैर ज़माना है तो शिक्षक, विद्यार्थी और हिंदी भाषी लोगों को आगे आना होगा. प्रो. कैलाश नारायण तिवारी ने अपने अध्यक्षीय वक्तव्य में बताया कि 'हिंदी प्रेम' हिंदी भाषी भारतीयों से अधिक विदेशी (हिंदी सीखने वाले) लोगों में देखी जा रही है. उन्होंने अपने ही देश में हिंदी की स्थिति को चिंताजनक बताया. उनका मानना है कि हिंदी के आगे अंग्रेजी भाषा आ गई है, अंग्रेजी बोलचाल में आ गई है, जीवन में आ गई है. अंग्रेजी की टक्कर में हिंदी हारती नजर आ रही है. इस स्थिति से उभरने के लिए हिंदी के प्रति लोगों में आत्मविश्वास होना चाहिए, जो अभी नजर नहीं आ रहा है. संगोष्ठी के अंत में डॉ. विभा ठाकुर ने धन्यवाद ज्ञापित किया.

• विशिष्ट व्याख्यान :- 28 सितम्बर, 2019 को हिंदी साहित्य परिषद, कालिंदी महाविद्यालय (दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय) की ओर से एक विशिष्ट व्याख्यान 'हिंदी : कल, आज और कल' विषय पर सम्पन्न हुआ। जिसमें विशिष्ट वक्ता के रूप में प्रो. पूरन चंद टंडन (अध्यक्ष, शासी निकाय, कालिंदी महाविद्यालय) मौजूद थे, साथ में डॉ. अंजुला बंसल (प्राचार्या, कालिंदी महाविद्यालय) एवं डॉ. मंजु शर्मा (प्रभारी, हिंदी विभाग) उपस्थित रहीं। मंच संचालन बलजीत कौर ने किया। व्याख्यान का प्रारंभ दीप प्रज्ज्वलन व अतिथि सत्कार से किया गया। प्रो. पूरन चंद टंडन ने अपने व्याख्यान में कहा कि जब हम हिंदी भाषा को याद करते हैं तो अनुप्रयोग के संदर्भ में याद करते हैं। उन्होंने बताया कि 'हिंदी' साहित्य की भाषा के रूप में लगभग एक हजार साल बिता चुकी है। हिंदी साहित्य के सन्दर्भ में आदिकाल से लेकर आधुनिक काल तक प्रयोग की जाने वाली हिंदी भाषा के विभिन्न रूपों की तथ्यात्मक जानकारी विद्यार्थियों के समक्ष रखी, साथ ही वर्तमान समय में हिंदी भाषा के महत्व को रेखांकित किया। अपने व्याख्यान में आगे उन्होंने कहा कि हमको अनुवाद के माध्यम से दूसरी भाषाओं से ज्ञान आयात करना चाहिए। आज हिंदी की स्थिति अनुवाद के माध्यम से बेहतर हुई है। प्रो. टंडन ने कहा कि आज भी हम प्रयोग की भाषा सीख नहीं पाए हैं, इसलिए आवश्यक यह है कि हम को प्रयोग की भाषा में पारंगत होना चाहिए। आज हिंदी का प्रचार-प्रसार विश्व स्तर पर बढ़ तो अवश्य रहा है, लेकिन भारत में ही लोग पूरी तरह से आत्मसात नहीं कर पाएँ हैं, हम सभी को राष्ट्र के सम्मान के साथ-साथ देश की राष्ट्र-भाषा का भी सम्मान करना चाहिए। अभी हिंदी भाषा को और आगे बढ़ाने की जरूरत है इसके लिए हमको हमारी सपनों की भाषा हिंदी को आत्मसात करने की आवश्यकता है, हिंदी भाषा में अगर हम सभी बढ़-चढ़ कर काम करेंगे तो हिंदी का परचम पूरे विश्व में और अधिक मजबूती से लहराएगा।

तथा साथ ही कहानी की रचना प्रक्रिया पर बात की. इसके बाद डॉ. रवि चतुर्वेदी ने अपने व्याख्यान में कहा कि किस प्रकार उन्होंने क्रिकेट में अंग्रेजी कमेंटेटर के बीच में अपनी हिंदी कमेंटरी की जगह बनाई और किस प्रकार लोगों ने हिंदी कमेंटरी को स्वीकार किया. उन्होंने कमेंटरी को महाभारत के पात्र संजय से जोड़ा और क्रिकेट के थर्ड अम्पायर को शिवजी के तीसरे नेत्र से जोड़कर बताया. उन्होंने बताया कि भारत की छवि को अंतरराष्ट्रीय स्तर पर ऊँचा करने में महिलाओं का बड़ा योगदान है. खेलों में स्त्रियों के योगदान की प्रशंसा करते हुए कई महिला खिलाड़ियों के नाम गिनाये. इसके बाद प्रो. पूरन चन्द टंडन ने अपने अध्यक्षीय वक्तव्य में कहा कि साहित्य में वैसे तो सभी विधाओं का महत्व है लेकिन कहानी का अपना एक अलग स्थान है, एक अलग समाज है, एक बड़ा पाठक वर्ग है. प्रो. टंडन ने कहानी की रचना प्रक्रिया पर बात करते हुए कहा कि कहानी का विषय किस प्रकार के हो सकते हैं, समाज के कौन-कौन से मुद्दों पर कहानियां लिख सकते हैं और उन राष्ट्रीय, सामाजिक, सांस्कृतिक मुद्दों में कहानी तत्व किस प्रकार से पिरोया जा सकता है. प्रो. टंडन ने आगे अपने वक्तव्य में विद्यार्थियों को प्रेरित करते हुए कहा कि आपको अपनी सृजनात्मक क्षमता को विकसित करना चाहिए, कहानियाँ लिखने की कोशिश करनी चाहिए. मंच संचालन हेमंत रमण रवि ने किया तथा व्याख्यान के अंत में हिंदी विभाग की प्रभारी डॉ. मंजु शर्मा ने सभी को धन्यवाद ज्ञापित किया.

Grant: Rs. 5000

Students involved: B.Sc. (H) Physics (I and II year)

Brief description: The main objective of the project is to develop a research-based attitude among the undergraduate students at an early stage. It will give the students an overview of the various techniques required to obtain an independent and logical solution to any given problem. To achieve this goal several techniques will be applied, prominent among them will be to conduct a survey of the available literature for a given problem and forming a summary of the extracted information in the form of graphs, tables, diagrams etc. This summary will throw light on the missing links or areas in which further investigation is required. The second step in this approach will be encouraging the students to apply computation techniques to obtain a suitable yet optimal theoretical solution for the missing link.

There is no single strategy for a student's success, however, it is understandable that wellness-related barriers and obstacles can directly or indirectly result in academic non-success, behavioral problems, and attrition of a student. A healthy environment for students is much needed avenue to promote decision-making by students, acquaint students and nurture them to access a range of services and maximize their own potential. Efforts are needed that can help identify problems before they emerge. There are various key factors that can provide substantive and current insights to aid campus life to endeavor and help students succeed in college. Out of this health is one of the important factors.
