4. Detailed report:

On November 3rd, 2022, The Journalism Department of Kalindi College, University of Delhi organised an event on awareness on gender sensitization in the visual media that went by the name of “Her Jazbaat”.

Mr. Anindya Kalra who is a theatre director artist, presently works with Nalandaway foundation and runs an independent theatre group, Takhleeq graced the event as a chief guest. As the guest of honour, there was Mr. Varun Joshi, who is also a theatre artist, director writer and founder of VMS media solutions, a personality with work experience in movies like Bala and Chenku.

The event took place under the guidance of Principal Kalindi College, Prof. Anula Maurya, Co-ordinator Dr. Vinita Meena with Ms. Bharti as the organiser with rest of the teachers from department being the pillar of support. Kanak Tiwari and Mansi Bhandari co-ordinated the event on students' front.

The event began with the anchors Srishti and Tenzing's warm greetings who gave an insight into the theme followed by lamp lighting ceremony and felicitation of the guests. Opening performance was by Anshvi Singh, who performed Bharatnatyam.

Multiple stage acts, nukkad naatak, musical and skits were showcased which left everyone with goosebumps and a sensible thought and call for action as they covered crucial topics as gender stereotyping, patriarchy, duality, feminism and pseudo feminism, life of social media, LGBTQ community, gender identities, female foeticide, marital rape, rape, sex education and domestic violence, etc.

Among these there were filler performances such as semi classical dance by Anshvi and Khushi, poetry by Meenakshi and Mansi Mishra and song by Mansi Jain.

Apart from blessing the stage with such amazing performances, the final year students too had some short films prepared on themes as 1st female Uber driver, female college guard's interview, community growth, gender identity, etc. which took the audience by amaze.

Names as She, Doll House, Let her be, Beti tum badi mat hona, Hamari Chhori Chhoro se kam hai ke? Helped a lot in making the audience connect with the theme and the idea of gender sensitization.

Further, towards the wrapping up of event, the guests took over the podium and guided all on regards of journalism, theatre, performing and most importantly the theme of gender sensitization, it's value and tapped on topics that required serious attention. While they applauded the performances, they also gave insightful suggestions on the places of improvement which gave a better perspective to the performers.

As we moved to the vote of thanks delivered by Mansi Bhandari, General Secretary, Sahaafat (Journalism Society) all the attendees were flushed with enthusiasm and a feeling of completion and enlightenment which marks the success of the event indeed!
