

Computer Science Department

Department of Computer Science has three air conditioned networked (LAN) laboratories each equipped with 30 computers with the latest technology (computers, software, printers, and e-journal facility with a power backup (UPS) supply) making it effective for teaching and learning. It is equipped with LCD projectors and students can also access internet from all the three labs.

Computer Science Lab

