From the Principal's Desk

Quality is always more important than quantity. To monitor the quality of higher education in India, the Government of India, through UGC, has formed an autonomous institution: National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bangalore.

With an objective to enhance quality, growth and development of the College, this Self-Study Report (SSR based on data up to April 2015) is being submitted for the first cycle of Assessment and Accreditation by NAAC. This Report has been prepared according to the guidelines laid down by NAAC. A decentralized methodology has been adopted for preparation of this Report. Seven groups of teaching staff were formed to prepare criteria-wise reports. Each department worked for the preparation of its own evaluative report. The SSR Editing and Preparation Committee have compiled the various parts of the report together, according to the instructions laid down by NAAC.

For quality assessment and enhancement, an Internal Quality Assessment Committee (IQAC) has been constituted as a part of the NAAC Committee. The contributions of Prof. Sushma Yadav, Pro-Vice Chancellor, Indira Gandhi National Open University and Prof. Sri Prakash Singh, Professor of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Studies Chair in social justice, Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi, have been substantial. Special thanks to both of them for sparing time and for their invaluable inputs.

In the current academic session, the College has switched to Choice Based Credit System (CBCS); and most recently, UGC has given permission for two new Bachelor of Vocation Courses (B. Voc.) i.e., (i) Web Designing and (ii) Printing Technology. Details of these recent developments shall be given in the next cycle of Assessment and Accreditation by NAAC.

This report includes in its ambit information regarding administrative and academic aspects of the College. The details and data included in the report is the combined outcome of enormous efforts of my teachers. All material of the report has been prepared, collected, compiled and edited by the members of the committee for Self-Study Report. I put on record my gratitude for their sincere efforts and hard work especially to Dr. Ruchi Tyagi (Coordinator), Dr. Rakhee Chauhan, Dr. Tarkeshwar, Dr. Amit Kumar, Dr. Pukhraj Jangid, Dr. M. Arunjit Singh and their whole team. I gratefully acknowledge the support and cooperation of Administrative Officer, Mr. Noorul Haq; SO Accounts, Mr. Hemant Srivastav; SO Administrative, Mr. R. P. Dahamal and their entire team. It is needless to say that this report is an honest assessment of our strengths and weaknesses. It is indeed a mirror that reflects our real image with its highs and lows. Bringing out this report has encouraged us to analyse ourselves and generate an inspiration from within to overcome the pitfalls and shortcomings and move ahead together ahead with full gusto.

Kalindi At A Glance

Kalindi College, an institute of academic excellence and achievement, was established in 1967 as a constituent college of the University of Delhi with a vision to cater to the need of higher education of young women, especially those belonging to the weaker sections of the society. Kalindi's motto 'ज्ञानं शीलं धर्मश्चैव भूषणं' (Gyānam Shīlam Dharmashchaiv Bhushanam) conveys the three virtues of human life: knowledge, modesty and sense of duty. Since its inception, the College has not only made substantial progress in the field of education, but also contributed immensely in nation building. Many of its students and alumni have reached great heights and achieved national and international recognition.

Vermicomposting has also been implemented in the Herbal Garden of the College, where degradable waste from the surrounding area is utilized to produce compost. The Chemistry and Biology laboratories minimize the use of hazardous chemicals and looks for alternatives to these hazardous chemicals. The Write-off Committee takes care of e-waste disposal and assures its safe transportation.

Kalindi College has adopted a series of innovative academic pursuits for the past few years and made inroads into exploring new innovative practices by organizing various knowledge fairs. Gyan-Leher and Vigyan-Vividha are examples. These provide a space for the students to showcase their creativity, talent, scientific and critical endeavors and their innovative skills in several ways. Sincere efforts of the staff and students in Antardhvani, fetched the College Second and Third Prize respectively in 2013 and 2015 in “Good Academic Practices”. In addition, in events such as Nukkad-Natak, NCC Solo Singing and Band Competition, the College won prizes and received special mention in several others.

The College has also worked on projects with the objective of the employability of students in future and completed it successfully at academic and industrial level. This aspect of pedagogical innovation has taken care of the students, especially, from weaker sections of society and has tried to inculcate and train the skills/talents of the students in certain vocational aspects like art and crafts, stitching, etc. Utthan has been the pioneer of this aspect of innovational practices in the College. This project aims to instill self-confidence, self-dependence and self-reliance among students through entrepreneurial and vocational skills.

Moreover, Kalindi has also laid emphasis on the aspects of learning beyond classrooms by organizing flood-relief campaign, rallies, workshops, etc. on various social, political and gender issues in order to create awareness amongst students for their rights and sensitize them towards their social responsibility in the building up of a progressive and vibrant society.

Successful completion of University Innovation Projects by the faculty and students of the College, specifically the “Conversion of Mechanical Energy to Electrical Energy on Metro Tracks” and the study of its feasibility has been the reflection of innovation and research culture in the College that has gained industry recognition as well.

3.1.9 What percentage of the faculty has utilised Sabbatical Leave for research activities? How has the provision contributed to improve the quality of research and imbibe research culture on the campus?

Record of sabbatical/study/duty leave during last four years:

- As per the University leave rules for the College faculty, sabbatical leave for post-doctoral research can be availed after completing seven years of service as Associate Professor.
  - 01 faculty member has availed this leave.

- However, study leave for Ph.D. and/or post-doctoral research is provided as per University rules to Associate Professors (with less than seven years of service) and Assistant Professors.
  - 01 faculty has taken study leave for post-doctoral research.
  - 01 faculty has taken duty leave for post-doctoral research sponsored by UGC-India.
  - 05 faculties have availed study leave for Ph. D.
- Benefit for the faculty members
  - Enhancement of knowledge.
  - Advancement and exploration of research.
  - Research publications.
  - Paper presentations.
- Benefit for the students
  - Acquaint with and enthuse them towards new areas of research;
  - Participation in research/innovative projects;
  - Pursue the post-graduation and research in the related areas.

3.1.10 Provide details of the initiatives taken up by the institution in creating awareness/advocating/transfer of relative findings of research of the institution and elsewhere to students and community (lab to land)

- Gender Issues: Awareness Rallies and symposium on sensitisation towards women's rights and violence against women have been organised to promote gender equality.
- Research on Gandhian Thoughts: Two-day inter-college festival was organised to highlight the relevance of Gandhian thought for promotion of universal peace and harmony. The research on Human Rights Violation in the Leather Industry created awareness about the rights of the labour class.
- Research on Monetary Econometric Techniques: The research on Monetary Economics and the application of econometric techniques on time series data has facilitated an analysis of the impact of financial sector reforms on demand for money in India and also helped to explore the possibility of inflation targeting in India. The research also helped to measure the efficiency of Indian manufacturing sectors.
- Research on Conversion of Wind/Mechanical Energy: The research finding exhibited that the conversion of wind/mechanical energy generated by fast moving metro trains (e.g., Delhi Metro) to electrical energy has the potential to bring about not only a substantial reduction in fuel costs and carbon emissions but will also reduce the electricity bills. This concept has been successfully verified by B.Sc. (H) Physics students under the guidance of Dr. Punita Verma, Department of Physics, at Shivaji Stadium, Delhi metro station.

Further, a group of B.Sc. (H) Physics students conceptualised an idea of converting sugar-cane waste into electrical energy through model display.

- Zoological Park: The College takes steps to devote more of their resources to research, education and conservation than the conventional approach of academics. In the view of conservation, the Department of Zoology has conceptualised a “Zoological Park” as its future plan in the College premises on the theme of “Sustainable Development” and consists of four major divisions, namely: Aquatic ecosystem, Medicinal plant garden, Apiary and Butterfly conservatory.
- Women Empowerment-“learning beyond classroom”: In this project, a group of B.A. (H) Political Science students got first-hand experience of the workings of the Gender Resource Centre (GRC)/NGO (Civil Society) which is working for women empowerment.

3.2 Resource Mobilization of Research

3.2.1 What percentage of the total budget is earmarked for research? Give details of major heads of expenditure, financial allocation and actual utilisation.

- As the College is an academic institution, there is no separate allocation of budget for research purpose. However, the faculty members are encouraged to apply and submit research proposals and get project grants from various funding agencies. The College is responsible for the mobilization of funds received.
- The College inspires the teachers to attend seminars/conferences/workshops/symposium for which travel expenses and registration charges are reimbursed as per UGC norms.
- Teacher-Student projects under Innovation Projects Schemes are supported by University of Delhi

3.2.2 Is there a provision in the institution to provide seed money to the faculty for research? If so, specify the amount disbursed and the percentage of the faculty that has availed the facility in the last four years?

- There is no such provision. If the respective faculty members apply for the research funds from the competent authority, the College provides all the necessary support. e.g., Dr. Varsha Singh, Assistant Professor in the Department of Zoology was awarded UGC-BSR Research Start-Up Grant of Rs. 6,00,000/- and the College as a facilitator provided institutional support.
- The award money received by the College during the University Cultural Festival: Antardhvani (i.e., Rs. 7 Lakhs in 2013 and Rs. 5 Lakhs in 2015) has been allocated to promote undergraduate research in the College.

- To promote academic research and innovation, the College organised Gyan-Leher, a Knowledge Fair wherein students of all departments were encouraged to identify areas of their interest and prepare models, projects and presentations that will be useful for the society. The following selected areas highlighted the undergraduate research during Gyan-Leher:

| Project Code          | Project Title   | Finding   |
|-----------------------|---|---|
| KC-101(2012-2013) | Conversion of Mechanical Energy to Electrical Energy on Metro Tracks          | The wind energy generated by fast moving metro trains can be converted to electrical energy. The high velocity of air will move the blades which in turn will move a rotor. The rotor is connected to turbine which will generate electricity. The generated electrical energy can be stored in batteries to be used at suitable places.                                    |
| KC 201(2013-2015) | To check the feasibility of installing turbines to generate electrical energy | The study included the different types of wind turbines to be used, shape and size of blades, optimal velocity of trains for best results, type of battery required for power storage, etc. After careful investigations, the length of the blade required for a wind turbine was proposed to be 30 cm and the power generated was calculated theoretically using the same. |

• Research studies or surveys benefiting the community or improving the services and social development

| Project Code        | Project Title   | Finding  |

The Building Committee finalises the plans and estimates of the various building projects proposed by the College. It ensures the completion of the construction of buildings in accordance with the approved plans and estimates. It also ensures proper utilisation of the funds received from the UGC, the Government and from the College, out of its own resources.

- College Development Committee, Space Management Committee and Purchase Committee look after the day to day maintenance and expansion of the infrastructure.
- Two caretakers, Multi-Tasking Staff (MTS) and outsourced staff provide logistic support for maintenance of infrastructure.
- In addition, services of a part-time site engineer are also utilised as and when needed.
- After the reservation for OBC category students, the College constructed 22 additional classrooms with the increase in the number of students admitted.
- Visualising the growing needs of new syllabi, the College has added one new Chemistry Laboratory and Multimedia Studio. Three Computer Science Laboratories have been renovated. The renovation of Botany and Zoology Laboratories is under process. Two separate cyber centers for Teachers and Students have been created.

- Projectors have been affixed in 25 classrooms to meet the curriculum requirements.
- The renovation of state of the art Seminar Room and Conference Room is under process.
- To deal with power shortage and frequent breakdowns, a 250 KVA Silent DG Set with AMF Panel has been installed for uninterrupted power supply in the College.
- The College has prepared ramps and toilets for differently abled students.
- For better indoor games facilities, Sports Utility Centre with Gymnasium is also under construction.

For informal learning, Unmukt-Parisar: the Amphitheatre in the College Ground; open-platform in August Kranti Park; Theme Park; Sleeping Buddha Park; Saraswati Park; and History Stone have been constructed.

7.1.1 Does the Institute conduct a Green Audit of its Campus and Facilities?

The College has no formal mechanism for Green Audit. However, the College takes all possible steps to make the campus eco-friendly.

- The 'Eco Club' undertakes various activities which aims to raise environmental consciousness in the College campus with the regular tree plantation and nature preservation drives.
- The College has five gardeners to maintain the flora and the aesthetic beautification of the College campus.
- The College maintains its green cover through careful nurturing, prohibition of tree cutting and the pathways with minimal cementing to maximise water percolation.
- The College has developed a beautiful Herbal Garden, consisting of plants having medicinal value.
- The College celebrates the Environment Day with new plantations by various teaching faculty, non-teaching staff and students.
- As a practice the College greets all the guests with potted plants and Bonsai as a token of respect in all functions and activities.

- Currently a mechanism of “Adopt a Tree” is being devised for protection and conservation, where each faculty with a group of students shall be encouraged to adopt and nurture a tree.

7.1.2 What are the Initiatives taken by the College to make the Campus Eco-Friendly?

- Energy Conservation
  - The students and the staff of the College are sensitised towards the issue of conservation of energy and all of them help in this regard.
  - The electrical appliances such as lights, fans are switched off, whenever there are no occupants in the rooms/classes to use them.
  - The classrooms have been designed with high roofs and large windows which provide good ventilation and keep the rooms cool and airy. This reduces the need for air conditioning.
  - The large windows also allow natural light to come in, thereby minimizing the use of electricity in terms of requirement of tubelights.
  - The electric equipments are purchased keeping in mind of their efficiency at the low cost of electricity, also the Air Conditioners installed in the campus are with three star rating (energy efficient) and they are well maintained with regular servicing.
  - All the blocks are installed with LT panels with MCCB to minimize electricity consumption.
- Use of Renewable Energy
  - A Vermi compost bed has been constructed in the herbal garden of the College. The garden waste and degradable waste from the canteen is utilised to produce compost. This compost is a useful fertilizer for the plants and allows us to maintain the fertility of soil.
  - Solid Waste Management: The College students are sensitised towards the spatial and temporal aspects of waste generation and collection. Students prepare report, charts, models and presentations regarding segregation of waste, collection of waste, transportation and disposal of waste and its management. Solid waste is disposed-off regularly.
  - Recycle of Papers: The College has a waste paper recycling unit as a joint venture of Kalindi College and Ministry of Environment and Forestry. Two non-teaching staff members have been trained for paper recycling and look after this setup. In addition, the Write-off Committee organised an exchange of waste paper and old practical files with new stationary items through Hindustan Times.

- Water harvesting: Pavements in the College are made of the mosaic tiles which do not use the cement isolation base and allow maximum water seepage into the soil.
- Check dam construction: Not required in the College campus.
- Efforts for Carbon Neutrality
  - The College at its own level has taken up several preventive measures to check the emission of carbon dioxide.
  - A huge proportion of students and staff are Metro Train or bus commuters which also causes a cut down of carbon emission in the College campus.
  - Specific areas have been marked for parking of the vehicles, thus limiting the carbon emission in the campus.
  - Dried leaves and waste paper are scientifically decomposed or recycled.
- Plantation
  - The College fence is filled with a long row of trees. All the possible non-concretised soil in the College is utilised to the maximum for the plantation purposes.
  - The College maintains its plant stock especially for the seasonal flowered plants.
  - The Eco Club and the NSS organize tree plantation drives inside the campus, on a regular basis.
  - Tree cutting is strictly prohibited and if required is compensated by new saplings.
- Hazardous Waste Management

The usage of hazardous chemicals, microorganism, medical and electronic wastes in Botany, Chemistry, Physics and Zoology laboratories are disposed through a systematic or alternative procedures for minimizing their direct effect on the environment. For a good academic practice:

  - In the Chemistry experiments, alternatively a greener approach is followed to minimize the usage of hazardous chemicals and maximum residual utilization processes are adopted.
  - Microorganisms and medical wastes like blood laden cotton swab are pretreated with UV radiation and/or autoclaved before disposal.
  - Hazardous material like EtBr used in biotechnology exercises is disposed in the parent department in the University.
- e-Waste Management: The Write-off Committee takes care of disposal of e-waste from Physics and Computer Science laboratories and assures its safe transportation with due procedure.

7.2 Innovations

7.2.1 Give details of innovations introduced During the Last Four Years which have created a Positive Impact on the Functioning of the College.

- The College not only has adopted series of innovative academic pursuits since last few years, but also has taken new initiatives to explore innovative practices by organizing various knowledge fairs like the Gyan-Leher, Vigyan-Vividha and Departmental Academic Festivals for the nurturing of the creative and innovative minds of the students.
- These activities provide a platform for the students to exhibit their creativity, talent, scientific and critical endeavour as well as organizational skills through several innovative models, projects and presentations.
- The College has also taken up projects in the context of the future employability of the students. This aspect of pedagogical innovation has taken care of the students especially from weaker sections of society and has tried to inculcate the skills and talents of the students in certain vocational aspects like art and crafts, stitching, etc.
- Utthan has been the pioneer of this aspect of innovational practices in the College. This project aims to inculcate self-confidence, self-dependence and self-reliance among students through entrepreneurial and vocational skills.
- The College has also emphasised on the aspects of learning beyond classrooms through organizing rallies, workshops, etc. on various social, political and gender issues in order to create awareness among students for their rights and also their social responsibility in building up of a progressive and vibrant society. Some of the major innovative projects taken up by the institution in recent years are given below:

Research at Undergraduate Level

A. Virtual Laboratory in Physics

One of the faculty members in Department of Physics has initiated a project and the details are as follows:

Title: An Innovative Approach to Practical in the Physics Laboratory.

Principal Investigator: Dr. Punita Verma, Department of Physics, Kalindi College

Students involved: Akansha Tiwari, Sumedha Gupta, Avnee Chauhan, Shikha Chaudhary, Mahima Sachdeva, Ayushi Kukreti, Priyanka Jha, Ishita Rawat, Nidhi, Deepika Singh, Shilpa, Simran Arora and Shivani Arora and twenty three more students of B.Sc. Physics Hons. 2nd year IV semester.

Funding provided by: National Academy of Sciences, India [NASI] (Delhi Chapter).

The aim of the project is to eradicate the basic problems faced by the students while performing practical in Physics laboratory. The bewilderment that a student experiences on starting experiments in the College and the mechanical way in which the experiments are performed in the laboratory with little idea about the Physics, laid the foundation for this project. To provide a solution, students were guided to create a 'Virtual Lab'. A complete package in the form of manuals, PowerPoint presentations, audio files with explanation, movies of experiments being performed, C++ programmes and Excel programmes for the facility of students and teachers alike are being developed under this project.

This project was presented at the National Science Conference and also at Antardhvani, University of Delhi academic festival held from 20th to 22nd Feb. 2015. This project was immensely appreciated and acknowledged by the various visitors, including civilians, students, teachers and the Principals of various colleges. The Vice Chancellor, DU also recognised the good work being done.

B. Zoological Park

The College encourages the use of resources to research, education and conservation in addition to the conventional teaching-learning methodologies. The College is looking forward to provide opportunities to its students for in-situ exercise which involve them in the field projects, in view of conserving various species and their natural habitats.

In the view of conservation, the Department of Zoology has planned to develop a “Zoological Park” in the College premises on the theme of “Sustainable Development”, which would consist of four major divisions:

- (i) Aquatic ecosystem,
- (ii) Medicinal plant garden,
- (iii) Apiary
- (iv) Butterfly conservatory, With the following principles:

- Aquatic ecosystem:
  - Pond ecosystem: This will provide a platform to study various real-time ecological exercises, like: light penetration, pH, turbidity, O<sub>2</sub>/CO<sub>2</sub> Concentration and polyculture of fish species.
  - Biological controlling site: It will include culture of larvivorous fishes that act as biological controlling agent against mosquitoes which cause diseases like malaria, yellow fever, etc. The important larvivorous fish are Gambusia, Panchax, Haplochitus, Trichogaster, etc.
- Medicinal Plant Garden: This section will emphasise upon the development and study of a number of medicinal plants aiming at spreading awareness among people concerning the medicinal plants/herbs as reserves of herbs and stocks of medicinal plants in the developing countries which are diminishing and in danger of extinction.

- Apiary: The College is also looking forward to develop entrepreneurial skill among students through setting up some apiaries. An apiary can act as a good source of livelihood in terms of many assets like organic honey, bee wax, honey gum, honey jelly dermatologic and cosmetic products, etc.
- Butterfly conservatory: Butterflies play a significant role as pollinators and a component of the food chain hence they protect the existence of other species too. The Zoology Department has planned to develop a butterfly conservatory which shall conserve rare species such as Lime Butterfly, Indian Fritillary, Striped Tiger and the Grass Jewel, the smallest butterfly in the world.

The students are also encouraged to show their research interest and innovative ideas through working models and these models are scrutinised in science fair held in the College campus and also presented at Antardhvani: the cultural festival of University of Delhi.

- Sweet Way To Energy

The students from the Department of Physics have developed a model for conservation of energy with the by-product (steam) produced in the sugar industry. The model is based on the following process

- The sugarcane is brought to the sugar mill industry, through milling and crushing sugar syrup is produced.
- This syrup is brought to the centrifugation unit to settle the impurities followed by sulphitation to decolorize the syrup.
- This is further processed in a boiler at high temperature of 1200-1300 K. The generated steam is raised to rotate the turbine, which rotates a shaft, thus electric field is generated
- This electric field is converted into magnetic field and thus electricity is produced.
- Similarly, the same method is used when the sugar crystals are cooled down.

- Plasma Waste Technology

Plasma: Fourth state of matter in simple words, ionised gas (–ve and +ve ions) to elaborate, when fast moving ions collide to each other, they release a vast amount of energy which gives plasma its unique status and unbelievable cutting power. Garbage is collected in a chamber where plasma torch is applied to 6000° C at such high temperature, then the garbage melts and what we are left with is slag and natural gases. The by-product, whose volume is  $\left(\frac{1}{3}\right)^{rd}$  of the volume of garbage used and so the mass, may be used as a building material for roads. Air cooled slag i.e., rock wool can be used as a sucking agent in oil pills. Also in India, we can use this process for cleaning of “Ganga”. The emitted gas can be used for electricity generation. Gas is passed through water and since the temperature of the gas is very high, water gets converted into steam arousing to run steam turbines.

Main Characteristics

- It can treat all types of garbage, household, industrial and medical.
- Very easy to handle.
- No human interference.
- By products do not pollute environment rather they further helps in cleaning.
- Employment of one method renders the achievement of several goals.
- Water As A Fuel: Water fuel cell is an alternative to reduce our overdependence on non-conventional sources of energy. It works on the principle of electrolytic reduction where water is split into hydrogen and oxygen gas. The hydrogen gas thus formed undergoes combustion i.e., acts as hydrogen fuel whose combustion gives only water as a byproduct; thus getting rid of the carbon based harmful gases like carbon dioxide and carbon mono oxide which are obtained from combustion of carbon based fuels. The efficiency of this cell is about 85% thus it is highly energy efficient, since the bond dissociation energy of water is comparatively very less than that of hydrogen and oxygen gases. Therefore the energy supplied is much lower than the energy obtained. In order to make the whole set up a household one, households' cells like potato or orange batteries can be used in series as a source of energy for water splitting. The conventional sources of energy cannot be revived because of their unavailability at all times. In such a scenario, water assures to be a potent and viable option because of its availability. Even the continuous supply of waste water can be used for such fuel cell. So truly the water to fuel to water converter is the need of the hour.
- Nuclear Power Plant: This model is based on the principle of obtaining heat energy through the nuclear fission of the atoms' nucleus from the fuel. A nuclear power plant is a facility at which energy released by the fissioning of atoms is converted to electrical energy.

The only purpose of a nuclear power plant is to produce electricity. To produce electricity, a power plant needs a source of heat to boil water which turns into steam. The steam then turns a turbine, which turns an electrical generator, and the generator produces electricity.

At nuclear power plants, the heat to make the steam is created when uranium atoms split, known as fission.

The nuclear fission taking place in the rods creates large amounts of energy. This heat energy is used to pressurize steam to move the turbines which creates electricity. Using this we can reduce carbon emission. Therefore it does not contribute to global warming.

- Water Overflow Alarm: Water overflow alarm is innovative equipment made by students of Computer Science Department. This equipment is used to control the wastage of power & water, etc. It is very easily installed in water tanks or at roofs to indicate that the water tank is full and the motor can be turned off to save water as well as energy.
  - Working: One wire of the alarm is connected to the predetermined position in the tank (to the overflow point) and when the water reaches to the predetermined position the equipment gives an alarm to switch off the motor
  - Impact: The device can be made at home easily, and can be installed by any member of a family and is also reliable. Water scarcity is a problem that is gripping the major Metro cities of the world; the main culprit is not availability but undue wastage. Most of the people who have easy access to resources like water have careless attitude towards this kind of issues but people who face this problem knows the worth of clean drinkable water.

This check on wastage not only gives us more financial savings, but also helps the environment and water cycle which in turn ensures that we save water for our future and this can be achieved through "Water Overflow Alarm".

- Recycling of Paper: The Department of Computer Science initiated a project on Paper Recycling that is the process of turning waste paper into new paper products. The objective of this project was to realize and to make a conscious effort to reduce greenhouse effect in the environment.
  - Impact: The students learnt the process of recycling of waste paper. They will also learn that with a nominal investment one can set up a small scale industry for livelihood for oneself and also for others by engaging them in the process. So the making of handmade paper by recycling can also be done at commercial level and as well as at household level with great benefits. This eco-friendly recycled paper has great demand in the country and abroad. Along with developing an entrepreneurial skill among students the project also showed them another direction to combat climate changes.

- Salt Water Electricity

The students of Department of Computer Science, were engaged in research and making Salt Water Electricity in the year 2013-14. It is possible to make electricity from salt water as it is a good conductor of electricity and this was demonstrated by the students.

- Impact: To save our non-renewable resources of energy, salt water energy generation is a useful alternative process. It helps in saving our resources as salt water is present on earth in copious amount. As our resources will be saved, and no pollution (one of the cause of global warming and thus climate changes) will occur, it will help us to stop the changes occurring in our environment to a greater extent.

- Electrostatic Precipitator

This device was prepared by the students of Department of Computer Science. An Electrostatic Precipitator (ESP) or electrostatic air cleaner is a particulate collection device that removes particles from a flowing gas (such as air) using the force of an induced electrostatic charge.

- Impact: Electrostatic precipitation removes particles from the exhaust gas stream of an industrial process. Often the process involves combustion, but it can be any industrial process that would otherwise emit particles to the atmosphere. As it cleans the air, no pollution is caused, global warming is prevented and the changes in the climate are also prevented to an extent.

- Carbon Dioxide Scrubber

A carbon dioxide scrubber was developed by the Computer Science Department and it is a device which absorbs carbon dioxide (CO<sub>2</sub>). It is used to treat exhaust gases from industrial plants or from exhaled air in life support systems such as retreaters in spacecraft, submersible craft or airtight chambers. Carbon dioxide scrubbers are also used in controlled atmosphere (CA) storage.

It can be done with other chemicals in place of sodium hydroxide such as lithium hydroxide, activated carbon, etc. If you want to achieve the CO<sub>2</sub> reduction targets set by policy-makers, over the long term you will need to implement carbon capture and storage.

- Impact: By this method, carbon dioxide is also scrubbed from the air (from industries and various power plants), it prevents pollution, global warming, etc. and moreover, carbon dioxide can be used for some other purposes also.

- Portable Mobile Charger

This device was made by B. Tech. (Computer Science) 2nd Year student of the College. This portable charger can be used for emergency purpose. As we know that now a days it is the era of android and smart phones giving space to many mobile applications consuming huge quantity of charge which adheres to switching off of the phones especially during travel, perpetual power cut, etc. Keeping the above problems in mind, this movable charger was made to attract the consumers who use mobiles phones most of time for office work, websites and for other purposes.

Future enhancement: We can also use solar panel or chargeable battery in the place of battery to produce current in the circuit. And USB (universal serial bus) can also be used as to charge any mobile through data cable.

7.3. Best Practices

7.3.1 Elaborate on any two best practices in the given format at page no. 98, which have contributed to the achievement of the Institutional Objectives and/or contributed to the Quality improvement of the core activities of the College.

INNOVATION PROJECT

1. Title of the Project: “Conversion of Mechanical Energy to Electrical Energy in Delhi Metro” (Innovation Project Code: KC-101, 2012-13)

10 undergraduate students of B.Sc. (H) Physics, namely, Abha Sharma, Charul Goel, Geeta, Himanshi Bansal, Kanika Tyagi, Karishma Thakran, Madhuri Ganguly, Rashmi Jha, Ruchika Gupta and Tulika Sharma of the College worked under the supervision of Dr. Savita Roy and Dr. Punita Verma (Department of Physics). Mr. S. A. Verma, Additional General Manager, DMRC was the mentor of the project.

2. Goal: The aim of this project was to study the feasibility of harnessing wind energy ushered in by the fast moving Metro Trains in Delhi to produce electricity.

The objective of this project was:

- to study the feasibility of utilizing wind energy for generation of electricity by making:
  - Energy calculations
  - Cost calculations
- to simulate the generation of electricity (power) from fast running Metro Trains
  - On the laboratory scale
  - On computer (if possible)

Underlying Principle: The wind energy generated by fast moving Metro Trains can be converted to electrical energy. The high velocity of air moves the blades which in turn will move a rotor. The rotor is connected to a turbine which will generate electricity. The generated electrical energy can be stored in batteries to be used at suitable places.

3. The Context

Challenging issues:

- To get the exact place where turbines could be put, i.e. on the trains or on the tracks or platform.
- Special permission to study the places where these blades could be placed.
- Specific data regarding velocity of trains and their dimensions.
- Permission from Delhi Metro Rail Corporation for survey and (if possible) installation.
- Procurement of blades, rotor, etc. of suitable dimensions.
- Location of suitable workshop for cutting and machining of blades.

4. The Practice

- Theoretical calculations on the basis of data collected on Metro tracks.
- Compilation of questionnaire and analysis of data.
- Students were trained in MATLAB which helped them in data analysis.

5. Evidence of Success

Through this innovation project, an effort has been made in the direction of converting wind energy, abundantly available all along Metro tracks which otherwise is a waste, to generate and to supplement the ever increasing demands of clean, green and cheap electricity.

Extensive study had been done through various parameters on which generation of electricity from wind turbines depend. The calculations were made to estimate the number of blades required, length of the blades, material of blades, type of turbines, etc. required for optimum generation. The power calculations were made for different lengths of blades taking in account the losses in wind turbine and other components.

- On the basis of the findings and calculations, a prototype was devised of rotor with 3 bladed-systems with a span area of 0.2826 m<sup>2</sup> coupled with a horizontal axis turbine of 500 watt of power generation capacity.
- The conservative estimate of energy that can be harnessed with a 500 watt turbine at wind velocity of 6 m/s will be 0.541 KWh for the blade length of 30 cm and assuming the conversion to be only 60% and the rest 40% is taken as essential loss. This will increase exponentially with the size of blades and wind velocity.

- In addition to electricity generated at above stated conditions, single turbine will be able to save more than 500 Kg of coal, more than 1.5 metric tons of CO<sub>2</sub> emissions and save one tree per day.
- The cost of installing turbine would be approximately ` 30,000/- per turbine and would be recovered within a year even if generation is at a rate of 0.5 KWh per day per turbine.
- Without obstructing the operation, as well as the safety and security of currently running Metros, it was decided to put the turbine along the underground Metro tracks at the mouth of tunnel where the maximum wind velocity available is 6.5 m/s.
- The process of installation has begun in collaboration with Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC).
- Learning for Students (200 words):

It was a great learning experience for the students.

- The students were trained in basic research methodology. During the project, the students developed their research instinct. They learned how to conduct literature survey, visualize and analyze the unknown problem.
- The endeavours took to various universities and research institutes like DMRC, IIT-Delhi, DTU, NPL, IUAC, etc., where students actively interacted with scientists and personnel who are pioneers in this field. Students conducted extensive literature survey which exposed them to the vast volume of research done in this area which otherwise is not accessible to undergraduate students of pure sciences. The students got to know University (University of Delhi) better by participating and attending various meetings, conferences and festivals.
- The students attended the stakeholders' meet organised by DMRC where they came to know the energy efficient measures taken by DMRC in their ongoing projects. This meet further highlighted the importance of this project.
- The students were trained in various scientific software like MATLAB, ORIGIN, MS-Office, etc. They got trained in writing papers and articles, making documentaries, PowerPoint presentations, posters, etc. They did all calculations, simulations, presentations in international and national conferences themselves. Students also learnt management of accounts, maintenance of stock books, etc.
- The students learnt to work as a team. They developed effective management skills in various areas due to their interaction with DMRC engineers and equipment vendors. They also learned time management and balanced their regular studies with the project. The students did extensive market survey for cost comparison and quality of equipment, etc.

- Three papers were presented in international and national conferences related to the topic.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

- Slow administrative decisions.
- Lack of manpower.
- Lack of space for lab scale testing.
- Lack of facility in and around Delhi to get the desired blade design tailor made.
- Difficult to obtain security permission to get the installation done.

7. Notes (Optional)

A) Benefits to Faculty and Students:

This project has brought huge recognition to the College at various forums viz. national and international forums and media.

- The College has won the “Best Motivational Award” at the Indo-German Workshop on Advanced Materials for Future Energy Requirements (WAMFER-2012)” jointly organised by the University of Delhi, India and the Max Planck Institute for Polymer Research, Mainz, Germany from 29-30 November, 2012.
- This project got laurels for its uniqueness and was praised by the Hon’ble Vice Chancellor and other dignitaries present at Antardhavani-2013 organised by University of Delhi. These efforts helped in earning second prize for the College at Antardhavani-2013.
- The College has been awarded the “Certificate of Appreciation” on its contribution as poster in “Third National Conference on Innovations in Indian Science Engineering & Technology” (February 25-27, 2013), organised by Swadeshi Science Movement of India, Delhi, at Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) and National Physical Laboratory.
- The idea caught attention of National Dailies like Hindustan Times, Times of India, Navbharat Times, Deccan Herald, Dainik Jagran, etc.
- The College once again was in news headlines when project team was honoured with “Shaurya Samman” by the Rashtriya Sevika Samiti, an NGO and was applauded by Ms. Sushma Swaraj (Chief Guest at the Function).

8. Benefits to Society (100 words):

In a developing country like India, there has been a considerable need for cost effective source of energy. The electricity generated along the Metro tracks has following benefits to the society and country at large:

- In addition to electricity generated at above stated condition, single turbine will be able to save more than 500 Kg of coal, more than 1.5 metric tons of CO<sub>2</sub> emissions and save one tree per day.
- There is a potential for real contribution to our energy supply; however, minuscule it may be, towards the ultimate goal of self-reliance for energy needs.
- An indigenously developed small wind turbine through being a simple technology can become a huge home grown industry.
- While producing energy, small wind turbines produce no harmful emissions that may affect the environment.
- Small wind turbines will help meet the national need for energy diversification and national security.

A carbon credit (often called a carbon offset) is a financial instrument that represents a ton of CO<sub>2</sub> (carbon dioxide) or CO<sub>2</sub>e (carbon dioxide equivalent gases) removed or reduced from the atmosphere. The carbon credit earned from this project can be used by governments, industries or private individuals to offset damaging carbon emissions that they are generating by consumption of fossil fuel being used for generating electricity.

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

- Blackboard teaching
- LCD projector
- PowerPoint presentation
- Simulation programme
- Excursion trips
- Specimen and Models demonstration

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities:

Yes, the department actively participates in these activities as and when required both at the College and the University level.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- Well-qualified faculty members with teaching as well as research experience and lots of publications to their credit.
- An excellent infrastructure, well-equipped, upgraded and spacious laboratory with latest instruments. Herbal Garden and museum having a collection of hundreds of variety of plants.
- In order to broaden the horizon of understanding, the College started B.Sc. (Honours) course in Botany in the year 2013 (FYUP).
- The Department has shown its excellence through results both in Life Sciences and Botany Honours, (Jasmine Jaggarwal 1st position in B.Sc. Life Sciences at the University level from 2011-2014).
- The Department actively and enthusiastically participates in lecture series, educational excursions and trips under the Joint Society "Biochemical Society".
- The department regularly assesses the growth of the students in terms of class tests, assignments, projects and attendance in a student friendly environment.
- Laboratories equipped with LCD projectors make learning more interesting and congenial with new advancements.

Weaknesses:

- Infrastructure: Lack of working space in terms of more laboratories, tissue culture laboratory and lecture theatre.
- Museum: A museum along with Curator as well as some more collection of important and rare specimens needed.

Opportunities:

Botany is emerging as a potential area for career and research in India and abroad. Aspirants having B.Sc. degree in Botany can find a lot of career opportunities in both public sector and private sector. They can join Botanical Survey of India (BSI), National Institute of Oceanography (NIO), Indian Agricultural Research Institute (IARI), Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE) etc., as Project/Scientific Assistants. Graduates of this subject can opt for post-graduation in Life Sciences, Biotechnology, Biochemistry, Toxicology, Genetics, Molecular Biology, Microbiology, etc. Applied postgraduate courses in Environmental Sciences, Agro Forestry, and Forensic Sciences can also be pursued. These include research in universities and government research institutions; consultancy in private sectors, Environment protection agencies like national parks, reserves, sanctuaries etc.; Plant Taxonomists in Herbariums and Ethnobotanists in food and pharmaceutical industries.

Challenges:

In the present scenario, the Department has the following challenges:

- After the implementation of expansion of OBC, the required space is less to accommodate the increasing strength of the students.
- More laboratory staff is required.
- More funding for the exposure of students and faculty is required.

Future Plans:

The Department has planned to conduct the following activities which will strengthen the Department at the College and the University level:

- Seminars and lectures by eminent scientists and academicians
- To visit important scientific institutions and laboratories
- To visit action-oriented environmental programmes
- To conduct project work/skill development sessions
- Field trips to botanical gardens and biodiversity parks
- To conduct an intercollege workshop in relevant and emerging subjects like Plant Ecology, Bioinformatics and Biotechnology.

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

- We make efficient use of projectors to support the content being taught in class.
- We use visual aids such as pictures, diagrams, flowcharts and films to complement lectures. Some concepts are better presented via animation.
- We show videos or engage students in discussions or other content-related activities to widen their horizon of innovation.
- Involving students in the planning of a unit of study, including how they should be assessed, and we agree on the submission deadline. Getting students involved in making such decisions help them take ownership of the course.
- Asking students 'What if' and ‘What do you think’ questions during lectures to capture students' attention and jump-start class discussions.
- Getting students to give presentations of concepts taught in class allows us to get a feedback of their understanding.
- Getting students to work in groups to develop projects ensure equal participation from every student.

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

The teaching methods adopted are innovative including practical exposure. Some of the classroom teaching methods adopted to enhance the best practices and help students to derive the best of learning from programme and courses are:-

- Lectures: The lectures conducted for every paper are there to infuse and develop analytical, conceptual, presentational, communicational and application oriented skills in the students. The classrooms are equipped with modern teaching aids like projectors and computers with Wi-Fi connectivity which help to make teaching more interesting and interactive.
- Tutorial: Tutorials give students space to think and provide an opportunity to discuss subject related problems.
- Brainstorming/ quiz: Quizzes are conducted in order to enable the recapitulation and evaluation of the concepts taught to them.
- Workshop, seminar, guest lecture: Workshops, seminars, guest lectures are conducted on current topics to provide a platform for deliberation and knowledge sharing
- Project: Making projects is a crucial part of the course. Projects are done by groups of students and are intended to be intensive, active learning projects, requiring significant efforts in planning and implementation as well as preparation of substantial written works. The projects provide hands on learning experience to the students and to teach them to convert theoretical knowledge to a practical one and they also teach them the importance of teamwork. They also help to boost learning by teamwork.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities : NIL

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- The biggest strength of the Department lies in its Student centric approach where focus is on skills and practices that enable lifelong learning and independent problem solving. Constant endeavors of the Department are directed towards the betterment of learning conditions and welfare of the students.
- The Department tries to enhance the exposure of students in academic matters of Economics and ensures their holistic development by conducting activities like Quiz, Paper Presentations, Group Discussions, etc.

- The teaching methods adopted are innovative, including practical exposure and are dynamic enough to motivate the students to participate in them with full enthusiasm and enable higher retention of the course content, thus making the programme more effective. The Department ensures that all lectures and tutorials, as per the groups, are taken regularly according to the allotted timetable. The time table once prepared at the beginning of the semester is not changed to avoid any confusion.

Weaknesses:

- Inadequate number of permanent faculty is causing instability in teaching practices.
- Number of Ad hoc teachers' frequent changes in structure and content of the course are obstructing the teaching process.

Opportunities:

- Education system in India is competitive and trains students rigorously to withstand fierce competition on a global scale. Indians are a force to reckon with due to their sheer talent and efficiency and this can be attributed to their rigorous training at the College level.
- Economics students can find employment in schools, colleges, central & commercial banks, government departments, international organizations, industries, etc.

Challenges:

- Economics as a social science subject calls for the skills and qualities – an analytical mindset, the ability to understand and balance a wide range of arguments and the ability to apply theories to reality among others. To provide such knowledge a conducive atmosphere should be provided to the teachers and the students.
- This includes highly motivated instructors or facilitators, an art of technology to provide updates on the subject. As the course structure is changing every year, in favour of practical papers, it sometimes become difficult to offer some practical optional papers even when the students show a genuine interest in them.

32. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

In addition to classroom teaching, the following are some of the widely used methodologies adopted by the faculty of the Department of English to enhance pedagogical efficacy:

- Use of interdisciplinary approach to teach all texts of English discipline
- Use of tutorial classes to discuss nuances and in-depth commentary of material used in lectures

- Extra notes/handouts/contextual/critical material provided to students
- As part of the DU festival Antardhvani 2013 the teaching faculty of the department put together a PowerPoint presentation entitled “Teaching Othello: Investigating “Innovation” in a Literature Classroom” which explored the possibilities and limits of the use of technology in teaching the discipline. It was acclaimed by those who visited the innovative practices stall put up by the college and was instrumental in the favourable reviews and prize money received by the institution.
- Taking this further in Gyan-Leher organised by the college, the faculty and the students put up a stall which involved the use of innovative means through employing audio visual methods of teaching. The project which received special mention and a cash prize was named “Pedagogical Imperatives in English Studies: An Instance/Teaching the Epics”.

- Use of pictures, PowerPoint presentations, etc. to give further insights into the texts
- Screening and discussion of relevant films
- Encouraging students to use library and online resources provided by the college and the university (JSTOR etc.)
- Encouraging student participation in class through short debates between differing points of view
- Encouraging student presentations to improve critical skills of students
- Encouraging group emails to share viewpoints, material, responses to texts and to clarify doubts
- Discussions with a smaller number of students in tutorials, in informal groups and also individually in order to clarify doubts and enhance critical and creative perspectives of the students, etc.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- Well qualified faculty members with a vast teaching as well as research experiences.
- The Department is highly encouraged and supported by the College Management and the Principal.
- The Department has also been evolved in co-curricular and extracurricular activities under the History Society “Dharohar”. The Faculty and the students of the Department have been involved in the functioning of the society by organising extracurricular and co-curricular activities in the form of Lecture Series, Educational Excursions and Trips to provide a platform for exchange of ideas.

Weaknesses:

- Due to increase in the number of seats after introduction of OBC quota the number of students in each section is too large.

Opportunities:

- History is a treasure of knowledge, culture and heritage which narrates the quality of life and behavior of human beings practiced in the past. The study of History as a discipline enables the students to know and understand the past. A historical enquiry based on such understanding is helpful in dealing with present day complexities with greater sensitivity.
- The student of History excel in such diverse fields as Administrative Services , Management, Human Resource Development , Theatre, Painting and Dance , Mass Communications , NGO's and Social Work, Teaching , Publishing , Higher Studies and Research .

Challenges:

- To make the subject more economically viable.

Future Plans:

- Although our department has been involved in various co-curricular and extra-curricular activities throughout the academic sessions, the Department has also planned to conduct the following activities that will put forward the name of our Department as well as our College at the University level:
- The Department proposes to introduce M.A. in History.
- Seminar and Lectures by Eminent Scientists and Academicians.
- To visit museums, archives, Institutions and permission for students to consult libraries other than their own college library.
- More funds to take students for historical trips.
- To conduct Project work/skill development sessions.
- To conduct an inter-college workshop in relevant, exchange programme for students as well as faculty members etc.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- The Mathematics Department is continuously upgrading itself according to changing curriculum and needs of the time.
- The faculty is well qualified and dedicated. Great efforts are taken to impart good academic knowledge and career guidance to the students.
- Despite a modest exam percentage of the students who take admission in the course, the output performance is very high and it is a regular phenomenon for students to secure more than 80% marks. There is a consistent number of students scoring more than 90% marks in individual papers and even record breaking 100% marks. To encourage their efforts, the Department has instituted various prizes like Singh Jee & Co. Prize, Asha Arora Memorial Prize, Old Students Association Prize, S. D. Mehra Memorial Prize, Shanti Devi Mehrotra Prize, Ankur Memorial Prize, Mathematics Teacher Prize Prize, P. K. Kapoor Prize and Shashi Satyapal Prize etc.
- The faculty takes care to solve the student's academic, emotional, psychological problems and helps them to attain their full potential.
- As a result of good performance and constant zeal, the students of Mathematics (Hons.) are getting placements in India and abroad, both in private and public sector as well as in teaching in schools, colleges and polytechnics.

Weaknesses:

We need the following facilities on an urgent basis-

- Mathematics Lab.
- Software MATHEMATICA.

Opportunities:

The Mathematics Society aims not only to make students academically strong but also fosters and helps the students to become strong confident and capable leaders for tomorrow. The society organizes different competitions and workshops for students and teachers by various eminent professors from across the country. Some of the opportunities are-

- Option of doing M.Sc. in Mathematics
- Students of Mathematics can pursue a career in teaching
- Can pursue research work in the subject and interdisciplinary subjects
- Many forefront areas in fields like actuarial sciences, banking, civil services etc.

Future Plans:

Although our Department has been involved in various co-curricular and extra-curricular activities throughout the academic sessions, the Department also plans to conduct the following activities that will put the name of our Department forward as well as our College at the University level:

- Visits/Trips to Scientific Institutes and Mathematically Important labs.
- Conduct workshops in relevant and emerging trends in Mathematics.
- Organize Conference/Seminars to enhance the knowledge of students and teachers in various fields of Mathematics.
- Organization of lectures for Career counseling/ from alumni.
- Creating a data base of Alumni

- Invitational Inter-College Tournament of Chess and Carrom for differently abled students

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

- Faculty from the department gives training for Table-Tennis and Yoga.
- Coaches of different games like Judo, Powerlifting, Athletics, gymnastics, Football, Kho-Kho, Hockey, Handball, Ball Badminton, Volleyball etc. are provided to the players to teach and enhance their performances for different level tournaments.
- Players are guided to stadiums and other colleges for extra practice.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities

- The Department has always been actively engaged in the events and programmes organised and conducted by the College and Delhi University towards social causes.
- Players of different games participated in J&K Flood Relief Campaign and collected funds.
- Students from sports also took part in Swachhata Abhiyaan and cleaned the College surroundings.
- The Department also trained students for self-defence techniques through different types of martial arts like judo and tae-kwon-do.
- Students from sports took part in Sureksha Ki Muskan organised by Delhi Police on 8th March 2015.

35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- Conducts sports classes, interclass tournaments, yoga workshop, aerobics classes, athletic meet and Annual Sports Day. The Department also conducts different matches for teaching and non-teaching staff to encourage good health. Qualified teachers and coaches provide a platform to the students and encourage them to excel in various tournaments.

Weaknesses:

- Only zonal level players come for admission.

Opportunities:

- This department makes an effort to encourage students to be healthy and make them understand the importance of sports. Through different self-defense activities they learn life-saving skills. The Fitness club which includes Yoga and Aerobics not only keeps them fit but also enables them to educate and coach others

Challenges:

In the present scenario the Department has the following challenges:

- Requires a proper maintained ground for sports.
- Requires more funding for the exposure of students and infrastructural facilities like gym, changing rooms, washroom, etc.

Future Plans:

The Department has planned to conduct :

- Lecture series by eminent academicians
- Skill development sessions
- Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities
- Educational excursion trips.

28. How many students have cleared national and state competitive examinations such as NET, SLET, GATE, Civil services, Defense services, etc.?

College has no as such data, but as per the knowledge of our faculties/old students, our students qualified number of such examinations.

29. Student progression :

Most of the students graduating in Physics from the College continue their education with M.Sc., B.Ed or M.B.A. and many continue it with Ph.D. It is a matter of great pride that our Physics (Hons.) students are getting placements in middle and top positions in India and also abroad and both in private and public sector as well as in teaching positions (Schools both private and government), colleges and polytechnics. For example, details of some students graduating from the department are as follows:

31. Number of students receiving financial assistance from college, university, government or other agencies: Details given in Point 23.

32. Details of student enrichment programmes (special lectures / workshops /seminar) with external expert:

- Workshop on “Women and Law” on 7.3.2013 (a day before the International Women's Day) in Kalindi College (Convenor: Dr Monika Bassi). The eminent speakers of the workshop included Justice Rekha Sharma (Retired High Court Judge), Prof. Madhu Vij (Director, Women Studies and Development Centre, University of Delhi) and ACP Pratima Sharma. Justice Rekha Sharma discussed how the status of women has improved over the past two decades. Prof. Madhu Vij explained ordinance XV-D to our students. ACP Pratima Sharma shared valuable information on women issues with the students.
- Seminar on “Gender Sensitization” on 23.10.13 in Kalindi College (Convenor: Dr Monika Bassi). Eminent speakers of the Seminar includes Joint Commissioner of Police Mr. Sandeep Goyal, DCP Mr. Alok Kumar, DCP Mr. Ashok Malik, ACP Patel Nagar Mr. Rajeev Midha and SHO Patel Nagar Mr. Ranbir Singh were invited to create awareness amongst students about legal issues relating to women in the current era, changing scenario of women's rights etc.
- With the target of student enrichment, Physcom Society has been formed which is a joint society of Physics and Computer Science Department. This society was formed in the year 1999. The society organizes various Lectures on the recent scientific topics by eminent speakers, educational trips to research institutes, quizzes, debates, poster making competitions, paper presentation competitions, models and working projects making competition, hands on sessions in the lab, and extracurricular activities like solo dance, group dance, solo singing competition etc. In this society students participate actively in various activities showing originality, exceptional creativity and dedication in their pursuits. Students are inspired and motivated to show their best. The Society offers excellent platform for all round development of students. It endeavors to enrich the academic standards of the students and is helpful in their professional development. Through this Society students have an access to high quality educational experience.

33. Teaching methods adopted to improve student learning:

- Emphasis is given on complete understanding of the topic.
- The students are encouraged to their queries and special focus is given on the weaker students.
- The teaching-learning process is made interactive to the best possible extent in the given time frame.
- The students are assigned the projects based on theory topics. They prepare and present the topic in front of the entire class. The class is interactive in the sense teacher and other students can also question the presenter. If the presenter is not able to resolve, teacher undertakes it.
- Several lectures are delivered as power point presentation and several with overhead projector using transparencies. Internet/ CDs are also used in some of the topics.
- Tutorials and assignments are integral part of internal assessments of all students.
- Experts are invited to give talks to the students so that they can also get exposed to the further topics of research and career guidance is also arranged. The holistic development of the student is targeted and the teachers are accessible to the students in and out of the classrooms.
- Manuals are available for most of the experiments in the labs.
- Over the course of time the department has developed a small departmental library providing reference books to the students.

34. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities:

Dr Sudha Gulati: Convenor for Anti-Ragging Committee, 2013

Dr Monika Bassi

- Public Information Officer (PIO) of the Kalindi College, University of Delhi in 2010.
- Member Secretary; College Complaint Committee (CCC), Kalindi College. CCC is a statutory Body constituted under the Delhi University Act, 1922 during 2012-2013 and 2013-14.

35. SWOC analysis of the Department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- Physics Department is continuously upgrading itself according to the changing curriculum and needs of the time. The faculty is continuously involved in research with a number of publications in peer reviewed journals.
- With the continuous support of the Principal and the collective efforts of students, lab staff and teachers, Physics department has delivered wonderful results.
- The faculty is well qualified and dedicated. Great efforts are taken to impart good academic knowledge and career guidance to the students.
- The faculty takes care to solve student's academic, emotional, psychological problems and helps them to attain their full potential.
- Despite a modest exam percentage of the students who take admission in the course, the output performance is very high and it is a regular phenomenon for students to secure more than 80% marks. There is a consistent number of students scoring more than 90% marks in individual papers and even a record breaking 100% marks. To encourage their efforts, the Department has instituted various prizes like Ram Gopal Joshi Memorial Prize, Shanti Devi Bhatnagar Memorial Prize, Ram Murthy Gupta Memorial Prize, Ankur Memorial Prize, Shiv Paul Goel Memorial Prize, Asha Arora Memorial Prize etc.
- As a result of a good performance and constant zeal, Physics (Hons.) students are getting placements in India and abroad both in private and public sector as well as in teaching in schools, colleges and polytechnics. The passout students visit the college on the Alumni day and maintain contact with the faculty.

Weaknesses:

The department could immensely benefit from some infrastructure additions like laboratory space, equipments and a workshop for repair of instruments.

Opportunities:

Physics remains to be one of the most intriguing and complex branch of science. The students graduating in Physics have following options:

- Pursue M. Sc, B.Ed. in Physics.
- Teaching Physics in schools- Private or Government, Coaching classes for entrance examinations.
- Continue with Research in Physics, leading to Ph.D. degree.
- Working in R & D Labs like DRDO, CSIR, NPL.
- Join research institutes in India i.e. BARC, Space Research Institutes and abroad i.e. Bell labs, IBM.
- Many forefront areas of research like Nanotechnology , Biophysics, Computational Physics, Space Physics, Theoretical Physics.

- Teaching Physics to Undergraduate courses in University, Engineering Institutes- Private and Government.

Future plans:

- Field work and Excursions: Field trips to National Physical laboratory, NSC, IUAC have been organised to give the students an exposure for the current research work in Physics. The department shall like to organize more of such field trips.
- Organization of lectures for career counselling/ from Alumni
- Creating a comprehensive data base of alumni.
- Planning another National Conference on Interdisciplinary Science issues (in collaboration with other science departments of the college) of relevance to challenges before the country.

- 35. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:
- Strengths:
- Excellent infrastructural facilities including class rooms with LCD projector; Separate Cyber Centre for Staff and Students; well-equipped Library etc.
  - Well qualified faculty members with teaching as well as research experience
- Weaknesses:
- Paucity of standard published reading material in Hindi.
  - Course is not market orientated.
- Opportunities:
- A proper teaching of Sanskrit can help in the way that reading Latin and Greek did for generations of Europeans when they searched for their roots in classical Rome and Greece.
  - A rigorous training in Panini's grammar rule can reward us with the ability to formulate and express ideas that are uncommon in our languages of everyday life. According to renowned Sanskritist, Sheldon Pollock, Sanskrit literature opens up 'another human consciousness and another way to be human'
- Challenges:
- Efforts should be made to foster excellence in Sanskrit teaching, general acceptance and inquisitiveness would naturally follow. To make the discipline more practical by including areas like Vedic Mathematics, ancient surgical sciences, 'Anavic' (Nano related), Ayurveda, etc.

- To make the discipline research oriented and market centered. Competition from professional and popular courses is indeed a great challenge

Future Plans:

The Department has planned to conduct

- Lecture series by eminent academicians;
- Project work/skill development sessions
- Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities
- Educational excursion trips

- PowerPoint presentation
- Simulation programme
- Excursion trips
- Specimen and Models Demonstration

33. Participation in Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) and Extension activities: Yes,

Participation and Duties, done when and where required at both College and University level

34. SWOC analysis of the department and Future plans:

Strengths:

- Well developed infrastructure both in the College and in the Department is our strength.
- Department is highly encouraged and supported by College Management and the Principal.
- Department has well educated and experienced faculties.
- Initially, the Department of Zoology was established with the introduction of Life Sciences course in Bachelor of Science (General) Stream and Applied Life Sciences. However, in order to broaden the horizon of understanding for Animal Sciences, the College started B.Sc. (Honours) course in Zoology in the year 2013, with the motive of developing and nurturing the young talented minds towards Animal Sciences.

- The Department has shown its excellence in results both in Life Sciences and Zoology Honours, (Jasmine Jaggarwal secured 1st position in B.Sc. Life Sciences in the University, throughout her academic tenure from 2011-2014).
- The Department also has been involved in co-curricular and extracurricular activities under the Joint Society “Biochemical Society”. The Zoological Department has been involved in this Society as one of the most active and enthusiastic participant. In the preceding sessions, our Department has played a pivotal role in organizing extracurricular and co-curricular activities in the form of lecture series, educational excursions and trips to provide a platform for scientific exchanges.
- In order to meet the academic requirements, as well as to incite interest in students, the department regularly assesses the growth of the students in terms of class tests, assignments, projects and attendance. Department also provide the student friendly environment in terms of their encouragement in various activity both at Department and College level.
- The Department has a well-equipped laboratory for conducting practical classes. The laboratories have been upgraded and equipped with LCD projectors to make learning more interesting and congenial with new advancements.
- The Department has installed following scientific instruments:
  - UV-vis Spectrophotometer
  - Cold Centrifuge
  - B.O.D. Incubator
  - Gel Electrophoresis Unit \
  - Deep freezers

Weaknesses:

Following components, would further strengthen the Department

A) Infrastructure: Working space in terms of more laboratories

B) Instrumentation: We need certain scientific instruments (some of them as given below) that will enhance the understanding of students about the subject and help them to keep pace with Modern Science.

- Phase contrast microscope with photography facility,
- refrigerated microtone Centrifuge, etc.

C) Departmental Library: A more comprehensive collection of subject books and journals will help the faculty and students in their academic and research pursuits.

D) Museum: A museum with Curator, as well as some more collection of important and rare specimens is needed.

Opportunities:

- Department of Zoology, imparts students with the sound knowledge of Biological Sciences. On the basis of that, students will have good career opportunities in different fields like research, teaching, industry and administrative services with scientific approach.
- Department of Zoology can introduce some application-based papers or courses and these papers may be collaborated with the concerned agencies (both governmental and private) for the short-term training programme or entrepreneurship. It will be highly beneficial for the students to get direct placements or could develop an opportunity for their employment.

Challenges:

In the present scenario, the Department has the following challenges:

- Working space with all the Infrastructure facilities (such as lab, library, computer, furniture)
- Latest scientific instruments and apparatus
- Funding for the exposure of students and faculty towards parallel institutes, agencies and Biologically Important locations in terms of visits, excursions, trainings and workshops
- To procure research grants and funds for undergraduate research.
