Impact of Extension Activities

Among many other success stories of students getting motivated towards social work and achieving excellence in their chosen fields, college is proud of its young female achievers who are making the college proud:

1. Ayushi Jain of Batch 2016, who was an NSS volunteer in college pursued Masters in Development and found herself applying in Azim Premji Foundation (a Not-for-Profit Organisation). She is engaged in training and capacity building of government school teachers in Uttarakhand wherein on a daily basis different pedagogical and perspective issues of government education system are dealt and worked upon.

3. Shrishti Sharma of Batch 2019, one of the founding members of Enactus and CDF Kalindi got the basis of her entrepreneurship by working at Enactus and CDF Kalindi. With the support of her teachers and mentors, she got the motivation to start and the opportunity to build some great impact making projects like project Kilkari and project Rehmat. She is a 4 times TEDx speaker, Josh Talks speaker, Indian Leadership awardee 2018, Young Achiever 2019 awardee, Indian Icon Leadership 2019 awardee, Exemplary Performer of The Year 2019 and Distinguished Women Entrepreneur of the Year 2019. She was awarded as Asia's Most Innovative Women Entrepreneur of the Year 2020 by Yeforum. Her name was listed as 'Most Successful Female Entrepreneurs of India' now converted into a book. She is Co-Founder of a healthcare company named - Human Science and Founder at GAME, Asia's first online esports platform helping in gaming career establishment. She is also building India's first company in space mining - a technology that can extract rare earth minerals from moon.

4. Rhea Malik of Batch 2020 was associated with Enactus Kalindi since its very inception in 2017, taking up leadership roles as the Project Lead and Student Advisor in the successive years. By the end of 3 years of working with Enactus she turned out to be a much more confident individual who was not afraid of channeling her talent of creating and bringing innovation to the table to create something meaningful and give back to the society- a cause very close to her heart. In addition to her personal development, Enactus also helped her gain the necessary work experience which in turn led to she being offered a place in her dream business school. She is currently pursuing MSc in Marketing at AMBS, The University of Manchester and has been selected as a Marketing Executive and HR Coordinator for one of the projects run by Enactus Manchester.

5. Tanisha Chaudhary of Batch 2020 says that her ability to empathise and connect with the people comes from the learnings she had while working with Enactus. Having been associated with Enactus Kalindi since the year of its inception gave her the opportunity to understand how projects concerned with the underprivileged sections of the society are built from the scratch. It gave her the opportunity to collaboratively work with different government and non-government organisations as well as corporates. She is currently enrolled in MBA at K. J. Somaiya Institute of Management, Mumbai.

6. Sakshi Data of Batch 2020 claims that her reason for joining Enactus was to work outside her comfort zone, and that is what exactly Enactus offered her. It became a medium for not only communicating her thoughts regarding various social issues but also working towards bringing a change. Working with people from diverse backgrounds, managing them and collaborating with some brilliant organizations, helped her understand the direction in which she wanted to take her career. And it led her to take up a management course in one the prestigious colleges of the country.

Apart from this, the college has received recognition on various platforms for actively promoting extension and outreach activities. Besides the awards mentioned in Section 3.3.2, other noteworthy achievements are:

1. The performance of Project Kilkari, aimed at providing education to the underprivileged kids, was praised by Connecting Dreams Foundation in 2018 for showing substantial results since its inception in 2017 and was expanded and taken to other college chapters in Delhi NCR.
2. Enactus Kalindi was among the top 10 teams selected out of 58 nationwide teams to be awarded the KPMG Business Ethics Grant 2020 for its project Rehmat which works towards upliftment of the manual scavenging community.

Enactus Kalindi has been awarded the KPMG Business Ethics Grant 2021 for another of its project Weran in which students are working towards empowering the farming community and working on sustainable development goals of responsible production and consumption.

7. Project Kilkari (2018)

 Dear Ms Srishri Sharma and CDF- Kalindi Team,

Greetings from Connecting Dreams Foundation

This is to congratulate the Kalindi College chapter on their outstanding performance in their Project Kilkari. Kilkari has shown substantial results since its inception and we are delighted to expand the project and take to the other college chapters in Delhi NCR in 2018.

The team's hardwork and dedication is much appreciated without which it would not have been viable. We are looking forward to the expansion of the project and a successful season.

Thanks and Regards,
