Interested faculty members from the college had to register themselves using <https://forms.gle/H6RzaSTzhSB3Jbo36> link. A total of 130 teachers from various departments of the college registered for the event. A separate WhatsApp group comprising of participants as well as organizing members was created to share the details and other relevant information regarding the event. Our resource persons shared the pre-requirements with the participants well in advance before the event. This included step-by-step guide to download various software and tools to be covered during the hands-on training session. This was done to ensure that the participants come prepared for the training session before hand.

The program was conducted on google meet platform and was streamed live on Kalindi College youtube channel.

The event started with the introductory remarks by Dr. Shilpika Bali Mehta, convenor, e-content development committee. Dr. Mehta apprised everyone about the functioning of the committee and emphasized on the importance of e-content development especially amid Covid times. Our Principal, Prof. Naina Hasija graced the occasion and gave her best wishes for the successful event.

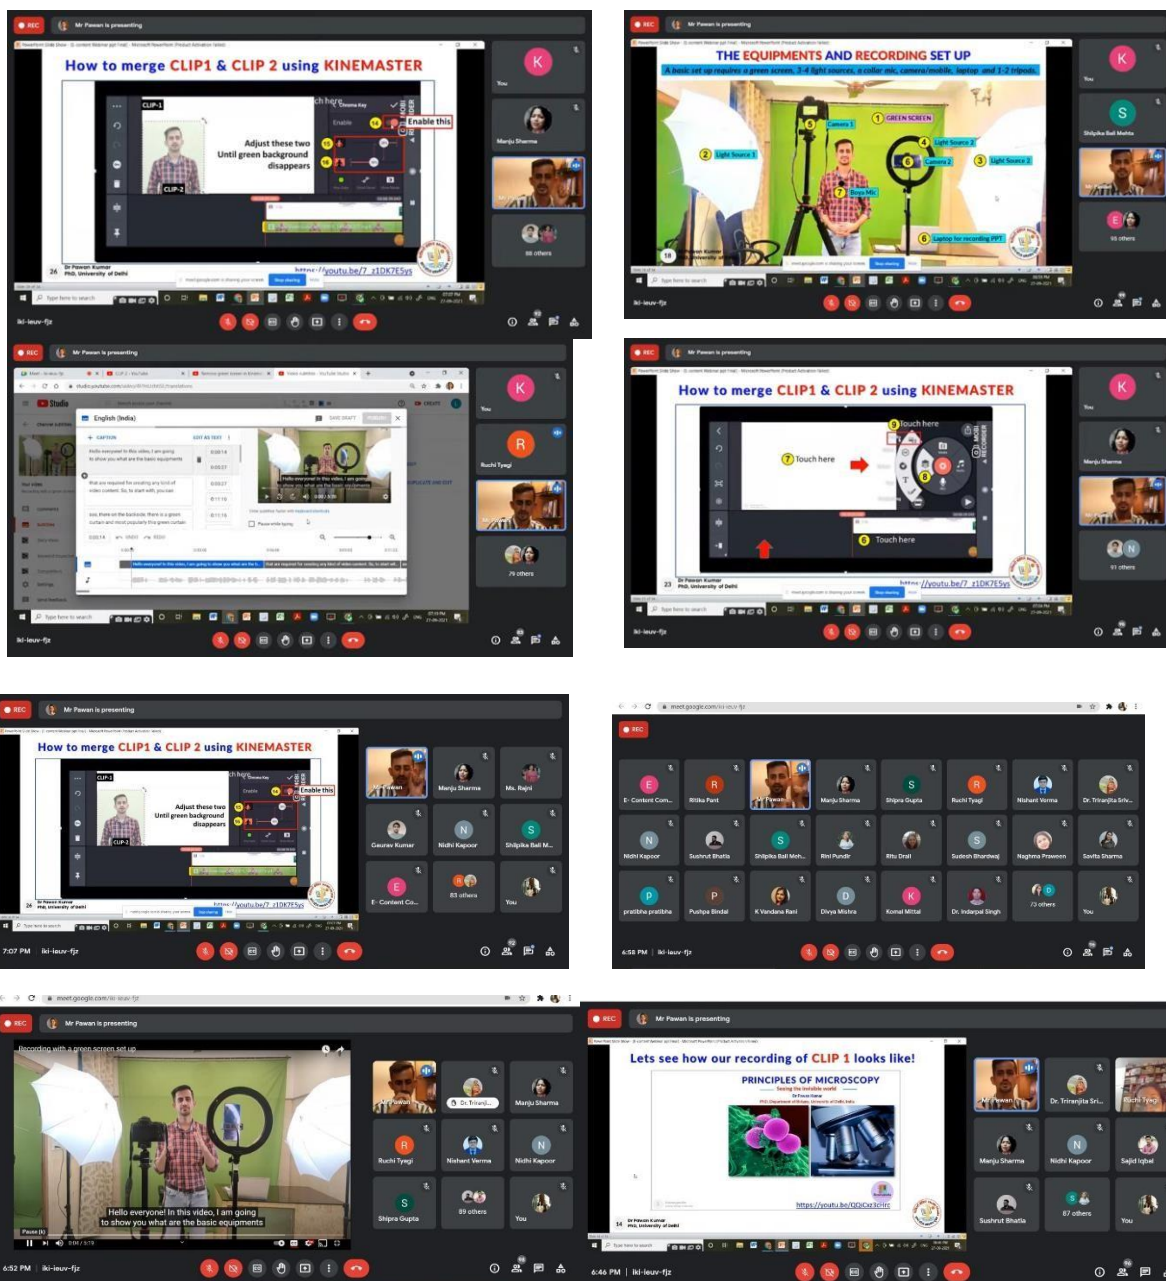

The first session on “Basics of audio and podcasting tools” was conducted by Dr. Savita Sharma. Dr. Sharma explained the concept behind creating a podcast and its advantages in our education system. She covered all the necessary steps required to create a basic podcast using a freely available software ‘audacity’. Working instructions as well as live demonstration on how to create, edit and import the track were covered efficiently in the session.

The second session on “Quick start guide to video content creation” was carried out by Dr. Pawan Kumar. Dr. Kumar covered all the steps required in creating a video content in an easy and simplified manner. He started with explaining what all equipment and recording set up are required for creating a video. A live powerpoint was recorded using ‘freecam’ software. Concept of green screen and its importance in video recording was also explained brilliantly. Dr. Pawan then made use of ‘kinemaster’ software and demonstrated its working with the audience. In the end, the details on how to add subtitles in the video and how to publish the video on any platform were also shared.

To gain insights on the learning outcomes from the event and to encourage our teachers to develop their own e-content, an assignment/activity from each session was given to the participants. The participants were asked to create the e-content and submit the same to e-content development committee within 10 days.

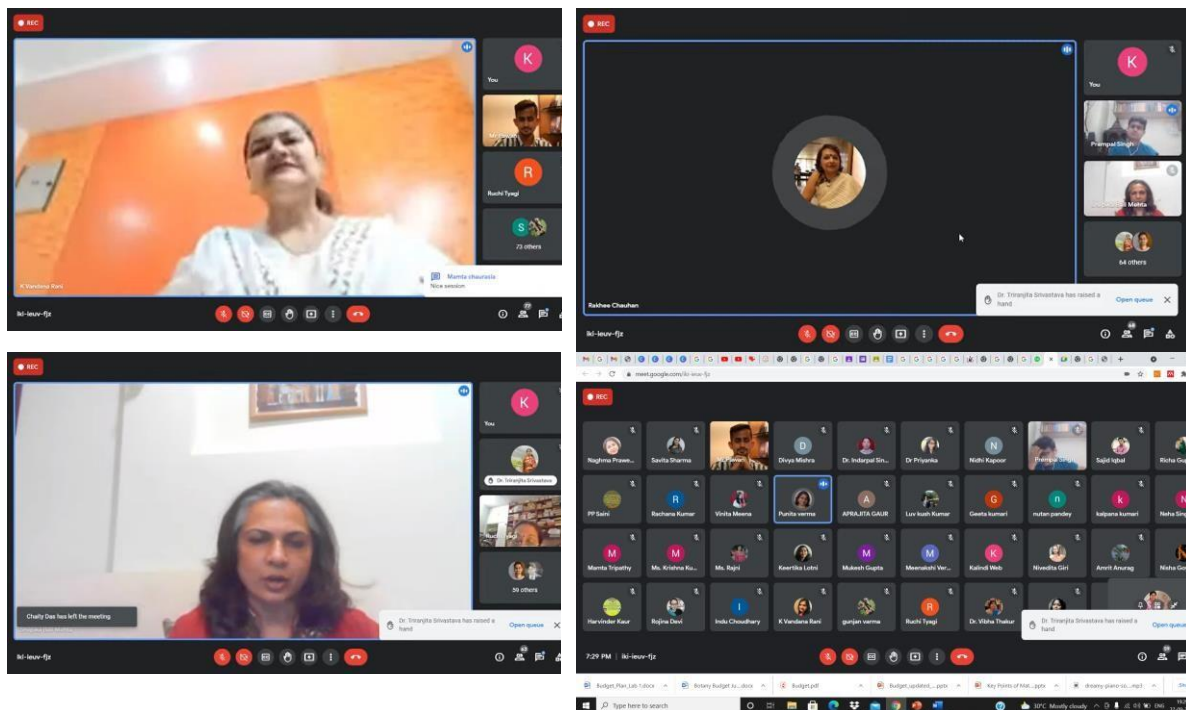

Both sessions were indeed very informative, interactive and highly beneficial for the teaching faculty of the college. The appreciations and overwhelming response from the live audience was the proof of the success of the event. The participants were asked to fill the feedback form at the end of the training session.

Feedback form link: <https://forms.gle/hCKG3Faxg6RRM1vU7>

The committee received feedback from 92 faculty member who attended the workshop.

The valedictory session was conducted by Dr. K. Vandana Rani, member, e-content development committee. Dr. Vandana thanked our respected Principal ma'am Prof. Naina Hasija for her constant support and encouragement. The participants were thanked for making the event so interactive and wonderful. Also, the convenor, co-convenor, resource persons and all the committee members of e-content development committee were thanked for organizing the workshop. Lastly, the involved technical persons were thanked for helping in putting up a great event.

Kalindi College, University of Delhi
Report on “Tools and Techniques for Avoiding Plagiarism in E-Content development”

The e-content development committee of Kalindi college organized its second event on “Tools and Techniques for Avoiding Plagiarism in E-Content development” for the faculty members of the college on 9th November 2021, Tuesday at 5:30 PM. First resource person for the session was our committee member Ms. Tanu Sharma, Assistant Professor, Department of English and second resource person was our college librarian Ms. Karnika Gaur. Ms. Sharma opted to cover “Avoiding Plagiarism in e-Content Development” while Ms. Gaur volunteered to share her knowledge and experience on “Using URKUND plagiarism software”. The poster of the event was launched and interested faculty members from the college were required to register themselves using <https://forms.gle/A8XYNC643EGSyhqU6> link. A total of 72 teachers from various departments of the college registered for the event. A separate WhatsApp group comprising of participants was created to share the details and other relevant information regarding the event.

The program was conducted on google meet platform and was streamed live on Kalindi College youtube channel.

Google meet – <https://meet.google.com/iki-ieuv-fjz>

The event was hosted by Dr. Savita Sharma, co-convenor, e-content development committee.

The first session on “Avoiding Plagiarism in e-Content Development” was conducted by Ms. Tanu Sharma. Right from the definition of plagiarism, Ms. Sharma explained the intricacies behind the concept of plagiarism. She covered the dos and don'ts required in academic writing that are necessary to avoid plagiarism. She also explained the similarities and differences between various types plagiarism viz. intentional complete plagiarism, paraphrasing, verbatim, patchwork and self-plagiarism. Ms. Sharma also covered the laid UGC's 2018 regulations on the modalities and penalties associated with plagiarism in academic writing.

The second session on “Using URKUND plagiarism software” was carried out by Ms. Karnika Gaur. Ms. Gaur covered all the steps required in operating URKUND, and anti-plagiarism software. She gave a live demonstration of all the steps required in using URKUND software. Right from the login instructions, to the steps required in uploading/submission of article and on the analysis of report received, Ms. Gaur covered all the necessary steps. The faculty members interacted and cleared their doubts related to plagiarism check by URKUND.

Both sessions were indeed very informative, interactive and highly beneficial for the teaching faculty of the college. The participants were asked to fill the feedback form at the end of the training session.
