This accomplishment of the college has been recognized by NAAC with an accreditation of "A" grade. The fact that Kalindi College has received an "A" grade from NAAC is evidence of the eminence attained as an outcome of everyone's combined efforts in the areas of academics, sports, and extra-curricular activities. We all have overcome unprecedented circumstances with great perseverance, bravery and fortitude. The academic world faced similar challenges, and we at Kalindi have taken all possible measures to make online as well as offline teaching and learning efficient and accessible to all of our students. Coaching And Remedial Classes

Convenor - Dr. Utpal Kumar

Co-Convenor - Mr. Gaurav Kumar

Kalindi College continuously strives to provide all-around help and assistance to its students. For this purpose, the college has created an excellent infrastructure and offers academic and co-curricular activities on campus. The college gives utmost importance to facilitating career counselling, placement and other professional help for young and aspiring students who wish to establish their careers. Kalindi College organizes remedial classes for students who need help in their academic sessions to perform well without any charges. The main objective is to improve their understanding of their discipline subjects and to help and guide them in their studies. The timetable for the entire college for the academic year is prepared in coordination with other departments like- Mathematics, Political Science, English, Hindi, Economics, Sanskrit, etc. The cell was instrumental in persuading and motivating the required teachers to agree to conduct classes voluntarily for the benefit of the weaker students. A lot of students benefited from this initiative.

In February 2012, the College started these coaching classes for its registered SC/ST/OBC (excluding creamy layer) and Minority students under the Merged Scheme of XI Plan, UGC. These classes were attended by enthusiastic students from these backgrounds that showed a keen interest in learning. Students are benefited from professional coaching by experts in their respective fields. About 200 students benefited from these classes in the academic years 2011-2012, 2012-13 and 2013-14. In addition to coaching classes, these students were provided study materials such as books/ computer facilities, newspapers, competitive magazines and online resource materials etc. The faculty members of the college and some experts from outside, who have vast experience in their respective fields were engaged as coordinators/instructors. The main focus of the resource person was to improve the areas in which students face difficulties so that the students can appear and prepare themselves for different competitive exams.

The Internal Committee (IC)

Presiding Officer: Dr. Sangita Dhal

Gender Sensitization and Gender Justice are the pillars of any strong institution. Keeping this in mind, Kalindi College strives to provide a safe and secure ambiance to its students, faculty, and staff members where they can thrive. The Internal Committee (IC) formerly known as the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) of Kalindi College facilitates such a vision and has the necessary mechanisms in place to address complaints of sexual harassment swiftly and diligently. Internal Committee deals with the cases of sexual harassment on the college premises. The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, provides protection against sexual harassment of women at the workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment. Some significant aspects of Sexual Harassment in Delhi University's Ordinance XV-D are as follows
(Please check the college website for more details: (www.kalindi.du.ac.in)).

The XV-D ordinance is based on the Policy Against Sexual Harassment by Delhi University and seeks to maintain and create an academic and work environment free of sexual harassment for students, and academic and non-teaching staff of Delhi University. "Sexual harassment" includes any unwelcome sexually determined behavior, whether directly or by implication, and includes physical contact and advances, a demand or request for sexual favors, sexually colored remarks, showing pornography, or any other unwelcome physical, verbal or nonverbal conduct of sexual nature. The Supreme Court held that the sexual harassment of a woman at a workplace would violate her fundamental rights of gender equality and right to life and liberty under Articles 14, 15, 19, and 21 of the Indian Constitution.

IC consists of the following members:

- | | |
|---|---|
| (a) One Presiding Officer who shall be a senior faculty member | familiar with issues relating to sexual harassment: |
| (b) Two Members from amongst the Teaching Staff | (d) Two non-teaching staff members |
| (c) One member from amongst non-governmental organisation or legal firm | (e) Three elected student representatives |

ICC conducts workshops and organizes gender sensitization programs on regular basis for students, faculty members, and administrative staff.

Anti-Ragging Committee

Convenor: Dr. Punam Sachdeva

Co-Convenor: Dr. Monika Bassi

‘Ragging’ means the doing of any act which causes, or is likely to cause any physical, psychological or physiological harm of apprehension or shame or embarrassment to a student, and includes

(a) Teasing or abusing or playing practical jokes on, or causing hurt to any student.

(b) Asking any student to do any act, or perform anything, which she/he would not, in the ordinary course, be willing to do or perform.

Ragging is different from other crimes because the motive is solely to get perverse pleasure. Ragging is also different from other crimes as it is actively promoted by certain sections of the society.

Observation and Directives of the Supreme Court:

The Supreme Court of India has observed that enrolment in academic pursuits or a campus life should not immunize any adult citizen from the penal provisions of the laws of the land.

According to the directions of the Supreme Court, if any instance of ragging is brought to the notice of the administration or the faculty, it is legally binding on the institute to report the matter to the Local Police.

Anti-Ragging

Based on the directions of the Hon’ble Supreme Court, the UGC framed the “UGC Regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009”. In compliance with the said Anti-ragging regulations, ragging is totally prohibited in Kalindi College, inside and / or outside the campus. Anyone indulging in the act of ragging and / or its abetment, whether actively or passively, or being a part of conspiracy to promote ragging, shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished as per mandate of UGC Regulations 2009 as well as under the provisions of any other penal law for the time being in force. Kalindi College strictly ensures that a congenial and welcoming environment is given to the freshers. To achieve this objective, an Anti-Ragging Committee has been formed by the Institute as per UGC Regulation 2009.

Roles and Responsibilities of Anti-Ragging Committee

- Zero tolerance to any act associated with ragging and to ensure strict compliance with the provision of UGC regulation 2009 at Kalindi College.
- To monitor and oversee the performance of the Anti-ragging squad to prevent ragging in Kalindi College.

Kalindi College has taken several steps to stop ragging inside college premises. During Orientation Programme, all the freshers are well informed about ragging as well as stern punitive penal action against the individual involved in the act of ragging. Freshers are also informed about contact numbers and e-mail ids of Anti-Ragging Committee members to report any ragging activity in the college. Anti-ragging committee forms Anti-ragging squad of teachers to control ragging activities in the college. Several strict decisions have been taken to curb this offence. The students involved in ragging shall be prosecuted/ rusticated or even expelled for a specific term as per decision of the Principal. Several Notice Boards have been fixed in the college at prominent places stating provisions pertaining to anti-ragging laws as mandated by the ordinance XV-C. Any student can contact the Anti-Ragging Committee in case of any untoward incident.

Attendance Committee

Convenor: Dr. Indu Choudhary

Co-Convenor: Dr. Sudha Gulati

The Attendance Committee of the college comprises of faculty members from different streams. This Committee regularly holds meetings and interacts with the administration office to ensure that proper and timely steps are taken in order to uphold the ordinances and guidelines laid down by University of Delhi from time to time, with respect to attendance of the students. The Committee also coordinates with the Teachers in-charge of various departments so that the department prepares a list of students having short attendance and arranges for letters to be sent for intimation to the parents/ guardians.

The Northeast Students' Cell

Convenor: Dr. Manila Narzary

Co-convenor: Ms. L. Paveine

The Northeast is a region of India that we know very little about, and this applies mainly to the cultural and social constituents which make the region so rich in its diversity. Every year the number of students coming from the northeast to Delhi for higher education is growing manifold. Delhi University receives the largest proportion of these aspiring students which is a very challenging task for the University and its affiliate colleges. Delhi University has taken many steps to promote the interest of the students coming from the northeast region.

The Northeast cell in Kalindi College is one of the oldest in Delhi University, constituted in 2012, even before the Government of India directive was notified for having such cells in Government supported academic institutions.

OBJECTIVE

The main objective of having this Cell in the College was to address the larger issues faced by the students from the northeast. The issues and problems are not limited to everyday life at college but also in the city. Starting from the admission time, helping them with all admission-related matters, the cell works as a support system for the students in adjusting to a new environment which the majority of them encounter having come from places that have little interaction with the larger society of India. In addition, it aims to work as a bridge between students from the region and those who have little or no knowledge about the region for mutual understanding. Through this cell, other students come to know about this important region of the country and its cultures.

Activities of the Cell

Since 2012 Kalindi College has been organizing various awareness programmes and events to disseminate knowledge and information about the region and its people through the Northeast Cell of the college. Students coming from the eight northeastern states (Assam, Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Mizoram, Meghalaya, Nagaland Tripura and Sikkim) not only participate but also take an active part in organizing programmes under this Cell. From time to time the cell also organizes motivational lectures; conducts counselling and safety workshops for the benefit of the students.

Presently there are about 45 students from different states in the northeast enrolled in different departments. The foundation stone for hostel accommodation named "Northeastern girl's hostel" in the College was laid by Prof Dinabandhu Sahoo, we are extremely grateful to him for all the help and support that he has provided.

How does the Cell work?

The Cell works through a Committee with a Convenor selected by the principal from among the faculty from the region. The other Committee members include a Co-Convenor and members from among the college Faculty.

For the smooth functioning of the Cell in coordinating with the students, the Committee elects 8 to 10 student representatives as office bearers from different batches through a nomination as well as a student voting system every year. The President is elected from the senior batch (Final Year).

The following is the position of Office Bearers:

1. President
2. General Secretary
3. Finance Secretary
4. Public Relation
5. Assistant Public Relation
6. Creative Director
7. Assistant Creative Director
8. Arts Representative
9. Science Representative
10. Commerce Representative

This would help them to have an amicable and conducive atmosphere on campus leveraging equality, and sensitivity towards other cultures and promoting a sense of fraternity among the students as well as the faculty. From time-to-time, the cell organizes various programmes for the students.

The library of the college is well-stocked. The library aims to assist the teacher's and students' needs related to the college's curriculum. A knowledgeable and courteous library staff guides and counsels students about literature and library facilities. Students are encouraged to use the library frequently. There are over 86,427 books in the library's collection on various topics which includes Book Bank and Student Aided Fund books, that students can use to help them flourish in their respective fields of study. The library's collection is split into three categories: General, Textbook, and Reference. Students can also consult a huge variety of National and International journals in print and online. The library subscribes to 54 journals and magazines. The library provides a comfortable learning environment with its open rack system, wide reading area, Web Center, and reference department. A Photostat service is also available in the library, which can be availed by faculty and students. The Web centre is located on the first floor of the library and provides students and faculty access to E-resources via DULS, N-List, and DELNET.

Remote access to e-resources is also available via N-LIST, DELNET, and DULS (only for Faculty and post-graduate students) using a User id and Password. Urkund software is availed by faculty members to check for plagiarism in their research works. All library-related information is available on the college website. Through the college website, visitors can access old exam papers, open access magazines/journals, newspapers, the Journal Content Alert Service, numerous educational digital resource links, and the Ask a Librarian option. The library is also promoting the Green initiative and thus procuring recycled material instead of library waste paper. The facility of E-Books for print disabled students is provided through Sugamya Pustakalaya and DU Braille library and two computer systems having screen reading software i.e. NVDA and Hindi OCR are available in the library for PWD students on the ground floor of the library.

Convenor: Dr. Vandana Gupta

Co-Convenor- Ms. Karnika Gaur, Dr. Nidhi Kapoor

The well-managed cyber centers provide computer and internet accessibility to students, faculty and staff for various academic and administrative tasks. It also helps in facilitating the research work of faculty and students. Delhi University subscribed to 63 high-quality electronic databases that have been made available through campus networks to teachers and students. In addition to these, 21 more databases are also accessible through Digital Library Consortium. Open access e-resources are also available through this campus wide network.

Students' Cyber Centre: The Cyber Centre, inaugurated in 2012 by Prof. Dinesh Singh, the then Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi, is well-connected with Delhi University Network via optical fibre with a speed of 100 MBPS. It has 2 Servers and 90 computers. It houses a UGC resource network centre which has 8 computers.

Teacher's Cyber Centre: In order to promote academic and research activities, the college has set up an exclusive cyber centre for the teachers, adjoining the Student's Cyber Centre, with 35 computers, all connected through LAN and Internet.

A new course B.Sc. Applied Sciences (Environmental Science) was introduced in 1985. In order to broaden the horizon of understanding about Plant Sciences, the college started B.Sc. (Honours) course in Botany in 2013 under Four Year Undergraduate Programme. However, the University reverted back to B.Sc. (Programme) semester mode in 2014. B.Sc. (Honours) Botany was again introduced in the year 2017. Presently the Department is running Undergraduate courses of B.Sc (H) Botany & B.Sc (Prog.) Life Science.

(2) Scope of the Course: Botany is emerging as one of the potential areas for career and research within the country and abroad. Aspirants having B.Sc (H) Botany can find a lot of career opportunities in both public sector and private sector. They can join Botanical Survey of India (BSI), National Institute of Oceanography (NIO), Indian Agricultural Research Institute (IARI), Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE) etc. as a Research Associate. Graduates of this subject can opt for post-graduation in Life-Science, Biotechnology, Biochemistry, Toxicology, Genetics, Molecular Biology, Microbiology, etc. Applied Post-Graduate courses in Environmental Sciences, Agro Forestry, and Forensic Science can also be pursued.

Department of Chemistry

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

The Department of Chemistry was established in 1967 since the inception of Kalindi College, a constituent college of the University of Delhi, situated in the heart of metro city Delhi. The Department has been working as an integral part from the very beginning of various interdisciplinary courses in the College that comes under Bachelor of Science in General and/or Life Sciences, Honours in Physics and Mathematics. The Department has been actively engaged in the successful journey of these courses. Currently, the Department offers a Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) - Learning Outcome-based Curriculum Framework (LOCF) for B.Sc. (H) Chemistry and B.Sc. Life Sciences.

Thus, it is imperative that Chemistry (Hons.) be studied at Kalindi College on a priority basis so as to expedite the wheels of inclusive growth and development to create a gender balance to move the country forward. Kalindi College aims to provide the student with a sound training in Chemistry. This includes extensive laboratory work to enable the student to acquire skills to understand various aspects of Chemistry and related areas. The students will also enhance their ability to understand chemical data, learn to apply statistics in research and improve their presentation and writing skills. The student will not only benefit from the resources available in a well-equipped laboratory but will also receive hands-on training from experienced and well-trained teachers of the college, as an integral part of the course. Such interactions and training will create inquisitiveness in students and further develop their scientific temperament and skill.

(2) Scope of the Course:

- Chemistry is a leading course designed to encourage aspiring students to pursue an undergraduate program that will challenge their critical thinking, give practical exposure and prepare them for other rewarding professional careers.
- The course helps the students in improving their diverse skills in various areas such as laboratory skills, numerical and computing skills, ability to approach problems both analytically and logically, time management skills, etc.
- The importance of chemistry would not diminish over time, so it will remain a promising career path. In a nutshell, the study of chemistry provides a vehicle for obtaining an education for life in a broad sense, so welcome to the great world of chemistry.
- After completion of Bachelor Degree in Chemistry (Hons) Course, a large number of Higher Education avenues open up for the student and pursue higher studies such as:

- | | |
|--|---|
| ❖ M.Sc. Chemistry | ❖ M.Sc. Forensic Science |
| ❖ M.Sc. Analytical Chemistry | ❖ M.Sc. Biochemistry |
| ❖ M.Sc. Drug Chemistry | ❖ M.Sc. Polymer Science |
| ❖ M.Sc. Organic Pharmaceutical Chemistry | ❖ Master of Business Administration (MBA) |
| ❖ M.Sc. Physical & Materials Chemistry | |

- Research Training and Ph.D.-A student of Chemistry develops an analytical bend of mind which makes them a good candidate to pursue research training and Ph.D. at renowned National and International Institutes and universities such as University of Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru Centre for Advanced Scientific Research, Indian Institute of Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, WWF (World Wildlife Fund) and TERI (The Energy and Research Institute) as well as various CSIR (Council for Scientific and Industrial Research) institutes for summer training programs and internships.
- Teaching assignment- Students can go for school teaching and can teach in various Colleges/Department of University and schools after completion of Ph. D and B.Ed. respectively.
- Scientists- Various funding agencies especially UGC, DST and CSIR offers a number of Women's Scientist positions particularly aimed at motivating more women to take up research positions. Being a women's college, this is an area which would be tapped by our students if they are adequately exposed to in-depth knowledge of the subject.

Department of Computer Science

1. Brief introduction about the Department:

In the academic year of 1991-92, the Department of Computer Science came into existence with an extremely modest infrastructure comprising 3 computers but a great vision. Starting with the B.Sc. General in the annual mode, the academic programmes of the Department kept growing and finally in 1997, B.Sc. (Honours) in Computer Science was introduced. The Department of Computer Science at Kalindi College has kept pace with academic programmes offered by other colleges in the University. With highly qualified and experienced faculty using cutting edge technical assistance and techniques, it has emerged at the forefront among all the departments with high performing students. In the recent years, the Department has taken the lead in the digitization of the course structure and curriculum of the College.

Currently, the department is running courses for B.Sc. (Hons) Computer science, Computer Science papers of Multidisciplinary Courses of Study with Three Core Disciplines formerly called B.Sc. (Programme) Physical Science and Multidisciplinary Courses of Study with Two Core Disciplines formerly known as B.A (Programme) in Computer Applications respectively apart from Computer Science papers of General Electives being offered to interdisciplinary hons and general programmes of the College.

Department of Computer Science organizes Orientation Programmes, Departmental Fests, Student Awareness Programmes, Academic Conferences, Faculty Development Programmes and many other events on regular basis for overall development of the students and teachers. The students are also encouraged to participate in academic and non-academic inter-college and intra-college activities.

2. Scope of the Course:

Computing is at the heart of almost everything in our daily life nowadays. Every industry has good magnitude of intersection with Computer Science which is growing day by day. The Information Technology (IT) sector, an allied field of Computer Science, is growing at an even higher rate. The sector recorded the highest growth rate in last two decades. It generates the scope of careers for skilled computer science professionals and hence keeps the relevancy of the subject alive. The scope of Computer Science academic programmes covers a broad spectrum of career opportunities.

Department of Economics

(1) Brief Introduction about the Department:

The Department of Economics as a part of Kalindi College came into existence in 1967. The subject was first offered in B.A. (Programme). From 1985 onwards, B.A. Honours in Economics were offered to the students. The study of Economics as a discipline encourages analytical thinking and a pragmatic approach to economic problems. The process of rational decision-making taught in Economics is of great relevance and value irrespective of the career a person chooses. Besides developing a rigorous foundation in economic theory and providing a global perspective, the B.A. Honours course focuses on issues specific to the Indian context. As an interdisciplinary paper, economics helps students to get a worldview of the political economy and the underlying issues.

(2) Scope of the Course:

It provides a platform for varied vocations like IES, IAS, MBA, etc. While more academically oriented students can pursue M.A., M.Phil., or Ph.D. and thereafter join college/university level teaching, those with an inclination towards banking and marketing can join the analytics team of banks and corporates. Further, students can avail opportunities to work in various research institutes or independently. Civil Services, RBI, and the Niti Aayog are popular pursuits for those interested in administration and framing economic policies. Today, students of economics are in demand in prestigious international organizations like the World Bank, IMF, United Nations, etc. Thus, economics students have great career opportunities at the national as well as international levels.

Department of English

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

The English Department is one of the oldest in the college and was established in 1967, the year of the establishment of the college. The English Honours course was introduced in 1988. Through its teaching of language and literature courses, the department has helped to mould young students into rational, critical individuals and responsible citizens. It has also helped students to improve their communication skills in a variety of arenas and provided the means of a deeper engagement with the world.

The English Department has a strong tradition of deep engagement with pedagogy, both in lecture classes as well as in smaller tutorial groups. Teachers are constantly updating themselves by participating in research and development programmes. Meaningful classroom interactions with students are further enhanced through close academic and personal mentoring. Students consult with teachers on how to improve their academic performance and how to explore avenues for further professional development.

The English Literary Society, Mitrakshar, organizes talks, student seminars and workshops, inviting eminent scholars and teachers from other institutions, to foster a greater understanding of the curriculum. It also provides a platform for students to hone their organizational abilities.

The study of English as a major discipline enhances the interpretive and expressive skills of students. Department of History

1. Brief Introduction of Department:

‘History is the study of life in society in the past, in all its aspects, in relation to present developments and future hopes. It is the story of man in time, an inquiry into the past based on evidence. Indeed, evidence is the raw material of history teaching and learning.’

With this intention in mind, B.A.(Hons) History was introduced within the three years (1970-71) of the foundation of Kalindi College. Studying History in hons level does not merely entail classroom teaching. It also requires trips to various historical monuments, museums, and archives etc, in order to comprehend the role played by time in man’s life. To fulfill this pivotal role, Dharohar, a historical society is constituted. The main aim behind the creation of Dharohar is to encourage consciousness amongst the students about historical events and thereby motivate them to participate in various inter- departmental activities.

2. Scope of the Subject:

As a history graduate one will have gained skills highly valued by employers such as analytical and critical reasoning, oral and written communication and research skills. A history degree is a good launch pad for a wide range of careers:

- M.A.(HISTORY)

- History of Art
- Heritage Studies
- Archivist/Records Manager

Department of Mathematics

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

Mathematics, the queen of science, has taken prominent importance in recent years leaving no field of study and research left untouched. Mathematics is used throughout the world as an essential tool in numerous fields including natural science, engineering, finance, social science etc. Study of Mathematics provides not just only the knowledge of subjects, but also helps to develop a skill- set needed in various other fields too.

Department of Mathematics had its origin in 1967, during the establishment of Kalindi College. The department started its journey in an old building with one of its pioneer member Late Ms. Promila Goswami. Dr. Neera Bahadur later joined the Department in 1970 at that time only department has B. A. (Pass).

With sincere and dedicated efforts of the founder teachers, the Department was able to start B. Sc. (Gen) in 1979 and later Mathematics (Hons) in 1992. Dr. Sudha Jain, Ms. Anshu Chotani and Ms. Neelam Bareja joined the Department in 1995. Ms. Charu Khanna (1996), Ms. Anju Rattan (1997) and Dr. Anju Gupta (1997) joined the Department in later years. With the advancement of the course, we now have an excellent faculty of one Professor, four Associate Professors and nine Assistant Professors (Ad-hoc) with Ms. Neelam Bareja as the present Teacher In-charge (2021-onwards).

The Department aims to enable each student with comprehensive study of hard-core Mathematics with adequate theoretical and application based knowledge, along with practical knowledge of computer oriented Mathematical tools. Dedicated efforts and continuous motivation of teachers has produced remarkably excellent results. In various papers, students have secured 100% and in others above 90%. An effort made by the teachers and students together has made a huge gap between the intake admission percentage and the final university results. This trend, which started many years ago, is still being continued.

Department is involved with students in various undergraduate discipline oriented\ interdisciplinary research projects. This helps students to grow as a researcher and provide a platform to use their brain in creative and effective way.

(2) Scope of the Course

The students not only grow academically, but the Department also tries to help the students to become strong, confident capable leaders of the future. Every year inter- college paper reading competitions, Mathematical Quizzes, Seminars and Workshops are organized for students and teachers by various eminent professors from across the country. Many students have also won accolades for the college by participating in paper presentation competitions organised at other colleges.

A Graduate student in B. Sc. (Honors) Mathematics from the college can further pursue academic courses like B.Ed. and P.G. Courses like M. Sc. or M.S., followed by M. Phil or Ph. D. Thus, they can find a promising career in the field of Research or Teaching.

Students can also take up Professional Courses like MCA or MBA. MCA is the best option for the B. Sc. Mathematics graduates who wish to pursue their career in IT sector and MBA for those who wish to pursue their career in Management field. The students can also explore areas like actuarial sciences, banking, civil services etc.

Department of Physics

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

Physics Department was established in the year 1990 in Kalindi College. The department caters to B.Sc. (H) Physics and B.Sc. Physical Science (Physics, Computer Science and Mathematics) and is continuously upgrading itself according to the changing curriculum and needs of the time from Annual to Semester to CBCS to UGCF-2022 (based on NEP) systems. Despite limitations of resources, the collective efforts of students, laboratory staff and teachers have delivered wonderful results with continual increase in the number of students scoring 90% and above in different papers. To encourage their efforts, various prizes like Ram Gopal Joshi Memorial Prize, Shanti Devi Bhatnagar Memorial Prize, Ram Murthy Gupta Memorial Prize, Ankur Memorial Prize, Shiv Paul Goel Memorial Prize, Asha Arora Memorial Prize etc. have been instituted for Physics (H) / Physical Science students. It is a matter of great pride that our Physics (Hons.) and Physical Science students are getting placements both in private and public sector as well as teaching positions in schools, colleges and polytechnics. The goal of the Physics department is to nurture young talents, to focus on standards, assessment and outcomes, and to ensure that all students learn in a more powerful way. We also find ways to motivate our students to scale greater heights than ever before.

(2) Scope of the Course:

If you want to discover the fundamental laws and underlying principles governing this mysterious world and are keen to know the ‘What’, ‘How’ and ‘Why’ of any of the physical and biological events/ phenomena, then enter the world of Physics. This subject is the gateway to Research and Development not only in Physical Sciences, but also in Computers, Biological and Chemical Sciences. After completing this course, you shall be equipped to take a plunge in any of the frontier areas of technology viz. Department of Political Science

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

The Department of Political Science was established in 1967, with Dr. Saroj Pathak as the first teacher-in charge and around 80 students pursuing a B.A (Pass) course. Honours courses in Political Science was first offered in 1973-74 and Masters was offered in 1987-88. Since then, the strength of the students in the subject has gone beyond 500. B.A. (Hons.) Political Science is the most sought-after course in the college.

Under an interdisciplinary ethos, the Department of Political Science has remained a very active partner and has coordinated with the department of Journalism. The faculty has also taught some important papers such as International Relations and Indian Government and Politics to Journalism students.

The department tries to engage students in understanding the current political world and encourages them to build an active citizenship and democratic engagement. It provides the students with a perspective to engage with the political, social, economic, and cultural issues of the times. As a discipline, Political Science endeavours to understand the politics in the world we live in from the global context to the most intimate yet equally political and significant personal context. It sees itself as providing a space for young women to engage in critical thinking, activism, advocacy as well as leadership. It equips them to share their views in a space where they could interrogate their own deeply cherished values and understand difference and its implications.

(2) Scope of the Course:

One of the favourite subjects for a career in Civil Services, Political Science as a subject offers careers in College and University teaching, Research, International Governance, Mass Media, Public Welfare, Civil Services, Management and remains a sought-after preparatory undergraduate course for a career in Law. Gender studies and other interdisciplinary approaches open further career opportunities for students. Students interested in issues of Indian politics and governance or in areas of Public Administration, International Governance or organizations like the U.N. or the socio-economic and political systems of the world, would do well to choose a Bachelor with Honours in Political Science.

The students who opt for Sanskrit find various career opportunities in different research-oriented fields & can also choose to work in L.I.C. and other financial institutions, academic and other administrative posts in Ideological/ Sanskrit/ Oriental Research Institutions.

Options of teaching such as Professorship, lectureship and school teaching in Sanskrit is the most likely career opportunities for students.

The course relates to different historical backgrounds of Sanskrit-based literature.

After graduating in Sanskrit, students can also opt for bank jobs, become translators, work in museums, libraries, become newsreaders and even go for civil services. Department of Zoology

(1) Brief introduction about the Department:

The Department of Zoology was started in 1967 since the inception of the college. This Department has been working as an integral part from the very beginning with various courses in the college that come under Bachelor of Science in General and/ or Life Sciences streams. This Department has remained engaged actively in the successful journey of these programs and has started B.Sc. (H) Zoology since 2017-18, after the erstwhile FYUP in Zoology.

Zoology is the study of animals wherein the student receives a highly comprehensive exposure to all levels of animal function and their diversity. As a subject, it creates enormous interest in us as we are also part of the animal kingdom. Thus, understanding the development and evolution of animals helps us to explore ourselves better. In this stream, students delve at a deeper level about how animals are an integral component of the ecosystem. Animals also have a major impact on our economy, either as pests competing for our food or as parasites influencing the quality of public health.

The knowledge of animal forms and their physiological function opens the gateway to applications in a number of exciting and innovative fields. In recent years, the study of both fundamental and applied Zoology has induced a keen interest in students, researchers and animal science-based industries. These subjects have been able to grab the attention of the academic world and have motivated scientists to work towards biodiversity conservation, formulating ecological safeguards and to apply Biotechnology and Bioinformatics to the field of Biomedical and Pharmaceutical sciences.

The Department has played an active role in consistently producing University position-holders in Life Sciences (a student of B. Sc. Life Sciences, Jasmine Aggarwal holds 1st position in Life Science (99.3%) in the history of the University, for the academic year 2013-2014. The Department also sees consecutive successes in B.Sc. (H) Zoology. Our students routinely get University ranks showing that they have mettle and, given the right motivation and prospects, can move to greater heights. They are also conferred with scholarships for good academic records at the college level. The students of Life Sciences and Zoology have been the proud recipients of these awards every year. To acquaint the students with a sound base of scientific training, the Department organizes various visits and excursions to important sites and scientific institutions. This helps them to inculcate a scientific and innovative temperament and acquire new concepts of relevant technologies in Zoology.

Apart from this, the Department is regularly involved in co-curricular and extracurricular activities under the interdepartmental society called the “Biochemical Society” and the Department Society “Zoonomia”. These societies are functional throughout the year wherein students and faculty members regularly participate in the activities with great enthusiasm.

The faculty members of the Department are well qualified with extensive teaching/research experience. Therefore, the department has an environment of academicians and research fellows who provide the students a foundation to nurture their future scientific endeavors. Most of the members are currently engaged in projects under Inhouse, UGC, DST and DBT schemes.

To cater to the need for grooming students towards science, the Zoology Department has a well-equipped laboratory for conducting practical classes which are managed by experienced and capable staff. In addition to the laboratory, the Department has a well-maintained Museum with a diverse range of specimens and a good collection of books in the Departmental Library. The Department takes steps to devote more of their resources to research, education and conservation than the conventional approach of academics. In the view of conservation, the Department of Zoology has conceptualized and established a “Butterfly Conservatory” and an “Aquatic Ecosystem” in the College premises. The Department joined the campaign of “Campus Bird Count India” in previous years and also organizes “Educational Excursion” as part of the curriculum.

(2) Scope of the Course:

After completing Bachelors in Zoology, a large number of higher education avenues open up for the students as they are eligible for:

- i. Master of Science Degree in Zoology, Biochemistry, Biotechnology, Environmental Sciences, Forestry, Microbiology, Genetics, Wildlife and various fields of Conservatory Sciences, Health Sciences, etc.
- ii. Research Training and Ph.D.- A student of Zoology can pursue research training and Ph.D. at renowned National and International Institutions.
- iii. Post-Doctoral Fellowships- a large number of students also go in for research as Post- Doctoral Fellows in various Universities and Institutes all over the world.
- iv. Assistant Professorships- in various Colleges or University Departments after completion of Ph. D.
- v. Teachers- after completing Masters in Zoology followed by Bachelor Degree in Education (B. Ed).
- vi. Scientists- various funding agencies especially UGC, DST and DBT offers a number of Women’s Scientist positions, particularly aimed at motivating more women to take up research positions.
- vii. Indian Administrative and Indian Forest services-a graduate student may seek their career in Indian Administration Services as a Civil Servant and Forest Officer after qualifying civil service examination with Zoology as main subject.
- viii. Jobs/Services: A Zoologist is also in demand in agriculture, fisheries and other industries related to animal husbandry. They can also opt for areas like veterinary sciences, pharmaceuticals, technical and/or research assistance in laboratories, museums, scientific organizations and scientific journalism. They also have other non-science options open to them like pursuing management, marketing and sales etc.
