KRYPTUS did not just offer bountiful opportunities to its students through placements and internships but also organized several interactive sessions with renowned speakers to enhance the knowledge of the students and help them sharpen their skills.

Financial Modelling Workshop 16 January 2022 , Sunday

The resource person started the workshop with a case study of BOD Co. which is a franchise of Dr. Reddy pharmacy. He explained the pharmacy model question and gave a detailed explanation of some 'basics of Excel' which included representation and interpretation of columns, rows and cells. Further he showed how to do basic addition, subtraction, multiplication, rounding off and cell merge in Excel. He even explained the business applications in Excel like relevant and absolute referencing. The speaker also explained various concepts related to finance like balance sheet, debt, capital, sources of funds, investment, return, cash flow and profit. The practical application of these concepts were explained by giving real life examples. Various formulas used in excel were also discussed.

The workshop continued and the speaker explained to the audience about profit and cost calculation for any project or company. He made the session interesting by using diagrams while taking inputs from the participants. After explaining about Excel and concepts of finance, the resource person solved the entire case study using the techniques explained before.

The workshop was witnessed by a total of 74 attendees from Kalindi College.

PRE-PLACEMENT WORKSHOP – AIESEC

22 January 2022, Saturday

The event started with a brief introduction to AIESEC by one of the team members, Niyati Mahajan. She shared how AIESEC works with the youth towards the fulfilment of their potential. She also shared the history of AIESEC which started in 1948 after the Second World War as a medium for international understanding to ensure the avoidance of similar conflicts in the future. They emphasised “youth” and “leadership” multiple times to iterate one of their goals as AIESEC was established – “for the youth and by the youth”. Being young adults themselves, they set in place that the organisation works on a large level by college students. They also shared some of their values like ‘striving for excellence, ‘demonstrating integrity, and ‘activating leadership’.

Thereafter, Niyati Mahajan explained the perks and benefits of joining AIESEC explaining how AIESEC is well recognized by the UN, and how “being involved here can provide you with an opportunity to be different and achieve what you want to achieve.” She then shared the different departments of the organisation which are divided between front and back office. The front office deals with the outgoing and incoming global exchange. They called the back office the ‘backbone of the organisation’ with departments like, ‘Business Development’ and ‘Finance and Legalities’, ‘People Management’, ‘Marketing’, ‘Customer Experience and Operations’. Furthermore, they shared their ‘National Board of Advisory’ with renowned names like Ronnie Screwala, founder of Upgrad, Arun Kumar, founder of KPMG, and UN advocate, Dia Mirza. Additionally, they provided details on the selection and enrollment process. The selection process will consist of three rounds:

First round: There’ll be a group discussion on a basic topic where English speaking skills will be mainly tested.

Second round: There’ll be what they called a ‘team innovation’ round which is a surprise element in their interview processes to check skills in team coordination.

Third round: It consists of a personal interview with HR.

The workshop was witnessed by a total of 96 attendees from Kalindi College.

EGIYOK

The All Agri Online Pvt. Ltd. Company was founded in Mohali, Punjab, India in 2020. The corporate is known under the name Egiyok, which is an open-source digital platform developed to handle every aspect of the Indian poultry industry. The poultry industry in India has undergone a significant transformation of role and framework with technological advances. It's evolved into a specialized sector in a number of regions thanks to technological advances. Egiyok's main purpose is to digitalize and build a standard marketplace for the Indian poultry industry. This sector needs organization; the middlemen should be eliminated, so buyers and sellers can do business directly. It's crucial to stabilize market fluctuations. All farmers and manufacturers must be given the correct tools for better supply and demand.
