 Vacant: Seats remaining available for allocation/admission.

 Allotted: Allocations made via University Admission Portal (Spot Round).

Important Notes:

- Allocations indicated above reflect candidates allotted seats through the centralized University Admission Portal.
- Vacant seats indicate the available positions in respective categories prior to the current round of admission.
- If a candidate is allotted a seat by the University in the Spot Round and accepts the allotted seat and pays the prescribed fee, the seat will be considered filled. Accordingly, the seat will be automatically deducted from the total number of vacant seats and will no longer be considered vacant for further admission. (Details of Vacant seats matrix and spot round allotment given above in the table format)
